A Mile In My Shoes Cultivating Compassion:

A Mile in My Shoes Trevor Hudson,2017-05-15 We can be quick to pray for people around the world in times of trauma but has prayer become a way to avoid taking real action Are we reluctant to be fully aware of the suffering around us Trevor Hudson challenges us to see hear and respond to the needs of others recognizing the living Christ in all things Hudson designed an 8 day program a pilgrimage to help all Christians cultivate the depth of compassion Jesus demonstrated Through this program pilgrims learn to be present wherever they are and with whomever they meet We seldom become more compassionate without working at it writes Hudson One practical way to cultivate compassion involves building the pilgrimage experience into our lives The risen Christ meets us in the lives of those who suffer Join Trevor Hudson in this exploration of how to love your neighbor as yourself and choose compassion as part of your daily life   Faith Seeking

Conviviality Samuel E. Ewell,2019-12-30 Faith Seeking Conviviality traces the journey of a U S missionary into Brazil and beyond seeking to be faithfully present while also questioning the default settings of good intentions Taking Ivan Illich as the primary theological guide on that journey Faith Seeking Conviviality narrates the discovery of a renewed imagination for Christian mission that arises as a response to two persistent questions First given the colonial history of Christian missionary expansion on what basis do we go on fulfilling the Great Commission Matt 28 16 20 as Christ s disciples A second question intimately related to the first is What makes it possible to embody a distinctively Christian presence that is missionary without being manipulative In doing theology with and after Ivan Illich Faith Seeking Conviviality does not offer a pull off the shelf model for mission but rather a framework for embodying the incarnational logic of mission that entails a convivial turn delinking missionary discipleship from the lure of techniques and institutional dependence in order to receive and to share the peace of Christ relationally   We not Me Andy Matheson,2014-06-01 It is well known that individualism and consumerism are so pervasive that they have become the spectacles through which we view and understand our lives including our spirituality Sadly we keep these glasses on as we read our Bibles and in the process we allow our reading to reinforce our individualism Many readers and expositors of the Bible take verses without due concern for their context In the process verses that were originally intended to be understood within a community setting are made to mean something different from what their authors intended One of the most serious consequences is that passages which refer to our community life are made to reinforce our individualism This is not handling the Word of Truth correctly In We Not Me Andy Matheson argues that we need to embrace the perspective of the God who sees His vision is relational he sees with communal lenses Community is so core to God s nature and purposes that it undergirds everything that is implicitly inferred or explicitly stated on every page of the Bible If we can rediscover what it means to be a community the kind of community where all barriers are broken down and where our lives reflect the original vision of the gospel then we play a much more effective part in ushering in God s Kingdom   The Missional Church in Perspective (The Missional Network) Craig

Van Gelder,Dwight J Zscheile,2011-05-01 In this book two leading ministry experts place the missional church conversation in historical perspective and offer fresh insights for its further development They begin by providing a helpful review of the genesis of the missional church and offering an insightful critique of the Gospel and Our Culture Network s seminal book Missional Church which set the conversation in motion They map the diverse paths this discussion has taken over the past decade identifying four primary branches and ten sub branches of the conversation and placing over one hundred published titles and websites into this framework The authors then utilize recent developments in biblical and theological perspectives to strengthen and extend the conversation about missional theology the church s interaction with culture and cultures and church organization and leadership in relation to the formation of believers as disciples Professors students and church leaders will value this comprehensive overview of the missional movement It includes a foreword by Alan J Roxburgh

I Bring the Voices of My People Chanequa Walker-Barnes,2019-10-01 Disrupting the racist and sexist biases in conversations on reconciliation Chanequa Walker Barnes offers a compelling argument that the Christian racial reconciliation movement is incapable of responding to modern day racism She demonstrates how reconciliation s roots in the evangelical male centered Promise Keepers movement has resulted in a patriarchal and largely symbolic effort focused upon improving relationships between men from various racial ethnic groups Walker Barnes argues that highlighting the voices of women of color is critical to developing any genuine efforts toward reconciliation Drawing upon intersectionality theory and critical race studies she demonstrates how living at the intersection of racism and sexism exposes women of color to unique experiences of gendered racism that are not about relationships but rather are about systems of power and inequity Refuting the idea that race and racism are one size fits all I Bring the Voices of My People highlights the particular work that White Americans must do to repent of racism and to work toward racial justice and offers a constructive view of reconciliation that prioritizes eliminating racial injustice and healing the damage that it has done to African Americans and other people of color A Mission Journey Una Jones, Jeanie Blankenbaker, 2017-12-01 This handbook encourages short term mission volunteers to reflect on the reasons why they engage in mission and how they plan and prepare to be more intentional It helps volunteers shape the stories of their mission experiences in a way that enhances their personal and spiritual journeys

What are We Thinking? Wessel Bentley, 2008 This book gives an insight into current theological debates in the Methodist Church with particular reference to Methodism in Southern Africa There are a number of things that make this book valuable and unique First there is the variety of authors and topics Second the variety of topics reflects key points in our social cultural economic and political context Third there is a need for up to date books that relate African perspectives on contemporary theological concerns Fourth the book does not aim to offer normative perspectives Rather it invites readers to become thinking Christians in our own contexts While Christian readers of all denominations will be challenged and enriched by this book a fifth reason the uniqueness of this contribution is that it gives contemporary expression to the spirit of John Wesley and Wesleyan theologies from a Southern African perspective Not only were Wesley's interests wide ranging as are the topics in this book but he managed to present a theology that is simultaneously reasonable deeply spiritual and socially engaged That is the excellent mix that this book offers Topics covered include Environmental ethics Postmodernism African ecclesiology Wesleyan theology mission gender issues same sex homosexuality Biblical interpretation Truth youth African theology Methodism American Book Publishing Record, 2005 Provocative Grace Robert Corin Morris, 2006 A restless search is on Cover stories about the real Jesus are on the increase in news magazines best sellers based on alternative Gospels and documentaries Whether you're a devout Christian an inquiring seeker or a rank skeptic this book is for you if you wish to explore the teaching of Jesus Provocative Grace focuses on the words of Jesus not as rules to live by but as challenges to precipitate growth into greater maturity Morris asks us to enlarge our existing concepts and to stretch our beliefs about Jesus beyond the borders of formal Christianity and what we learned in Sunday school The Jesus of the Gospels in all his modes of encountering people as prophet healer wisdom teacher mystic social critic and nonviolent revolutionary is a disturber of our immaturities one who challenges us to find and use our strengths writes Morris Jesus was neither a rule maker or idealist but a provocateur Rather than impossible ideals imposed upon us his sayings are proddings to grow step by step by trial and error learning into the best possibilities of our nature Listen to Jesus words not with an attitude of uncritical acceptance or blind faith but rather with an openness to hear the message in a fresh way Provocative Grace dares us to wrestle with Jesus sayings and to experience a vivid revelation of God's love and grace Each chapter helpfully arranges the book so that it may be an aid to personal reflection journaling or discussion Joyce in the Belly of the Big Truck;
