President Garrison Hurst hires the Moore Sisters Rodeo to perform in the school's new stadium the night before the homecoming game. The 3Bs AKA The Freebies because of their losing style may be lousy at football but as country boys they know what a herd of angry Brahma bulls can do to a grass field. Accompanied by every able-bodied man in town they form a picket line outside Hurst's office and raise their voices in protest. Will the president meet the team's demands to cancel the rodeo? Not if Donna Moore can help it. Backed by an iron-clad contract and a smart lawyer, Donna rallies the women of Rhineburg in support of their cowgirl sisters. Marching with signs in hand, the women shout and outmaneuver their male counterparts, taking over the college security office and generally causing havoc on Bruck's campus. Caroline Rhodes and her son and daughter-in-law take opposite sides in the argument until a football player is found murdered in a rodeo bullpen and Martin Rhodes is named the prime suspect. Caroline looks to Professor Carl Atwater, Maddy Mad Moeller, and the ladies of the Rhineburg Boarding House and Home for Gentle Women for help in catching a clever killer.

Exploring Language Assessment and Testing is a straightforward introduction to the field that provides an inclusive and impartial survey of both classroom-based assessment by teachers and larger scale testing using concrete examples to guide students to the relevant literature. Ranging from theory to classroom-based scenarios, the author provides practical guidance on designing, developing and using assessments with flexible step-by-step processes for improving the quality of tests and assessment systems to make them fairer and more accurate. This book is an indispensable introduction to the areas of language assessment and testing and will be of interest to language teachers as well as postgraduate and advanced undergraduate students studying Language Education, Applied Linguistics and Language Assessment.
