A Raisin In The Sun The Unfilmed Original Screenplay:

A Raisin in the Sun Lorraine Hansberry, 2011-11-02 Never before in the entire history of the American theater has so much of the truth of Black people's lives been seen on the stage observed James Baldwin shortly before A Raisin in the Sun opened on Broadway in 1959 This edition presents the fully restored uncut version of Hansberry's landmark work with an introduction by Robert Nemiroff Lorraine Hansberry's award winning drama about the hopes and aspirations of a struggling working class family living on the South Side of Chicago connected profoundly with the psyche of Black America and changed American theater forever The play's title comes from a line in Langston Hughes's poem Harlem which warns that a dream deferred might dry up like a raisin in the sun The events of every passing year add resonance to A Raisin in the Sun said The New York Times It is as if history is conspiring to make the play a classic

A Raisin in the Sun Lorraine Hansberry, 1992-10-01 Under the editorship of the late Robert Nemiroff with a provocative and thoughtful introduction by preeminent African American scholar Margaret B Wilkerson and a commentary by Spike Lee this completely restored screenplay is the accurate and authoritative edition of Lorraine Hansberry's script and a testament to her unparalleled accomplishment as a Black artist The 1961 film version of A Raisin in the Sun with a screenplay by the author Lorraine Hansberry won an award at the Cannes Film Festival even though one third of the actual screenplay Hansberry had written had been cut out The film did essentially bring Hansberry's extraordinary play to the screen but it failed to fulfill her cinematic vision Now with this landmark edition of Lorraine Hansberry's original script for the movie of A Raisin in the Sun that audiences never viewed readers have at hand an epic eloquent work capturing not only the life and dreams of a Black family but the Chicago and the society that surround and shape them Important changes in dialogue and exterior shots a stunning shift of focus to her male protagonist and a dramatic rewriting of the final scene show us an artist who understood and used the cinematic medium to transform a stage play into a different art form a profound and powerful film

Raisin In The Sun Lorraine Hansberry, 1995-04-01 A black family is united in love and pride as they struggle to overcome poor living conditions

Modern American Drama on Screen William Robert Bray, R. Barton Palmer, 2013-08-08 Focusing on key texts leading scholars explore how Hollywood has given an enduring life to the classics of Broadway theater

Writers of the Black Chicago Renaissance Steven C. Tracy, 2011-11-01 Writers of the Black Chicago Renaissance comprehensively explores the contours and content of the Black Chicago Renaissance a creative movement that emerged from the crucible of rigid segregation in Chicago's Black Belt from the 1930s through the 1960s Heavily influenced by the Harlem Renaissance and the Chicago Renaissance of white writers its participants were invested in political activism and social change as much as literature art and aesthetics The revolutionary writing of this era produced some of the first great accolades for African American literature and set up much of the important writing that came to fruition in the Black Arts Movement The volume covers a vast collection of subjects including many important writers such as Richard Wright Gwendolyn Brooks and Lorraine

Hansberry as well as cultural products such as black newspapers music and theater The book includes individual entries by experts on each subject a discography and filmography that highlight important writers musicians films and cultural presentations and an introduction that relates the Harlem Renaissance the White Chicago Renaissance the Black Chicago Renaissance and the Black Arts Movement Contributors are Robert Butler Robert H Cataliotti Maryemma Graham James C Hall James L Hill Michael Hill Lovalerie King Lawrence Jackson Angelene Jamison Hall Keith Leonard Lisbeth Lipari Bill V Mullen Patrick Naick William R Nash Charlene Regester Kimberly Ruffin Elizabeth Schultz Joyce Hope Scott James Smethurst Kimberly M Stanley Kathryn Waddell Takara Steven C Tracy Zoe Trodd Alan Wald Jamal Eric Watson Donyel Hobbs Williams Stephen Caldwell Wright and Richard Yarborough      Bound by Love Laura Mattoon D'Amore, 2011-05-25

What does it mean to be bound by love Sometimes the bonds of love supply bliss and sometimes they demand sacrifice Sometimes experiencing love saves people and sometimes it kills them Being bound by love often engenders moral responsibility in other cases it enslaves and imprisons the soul American mythologies especially those presented in film and television perpetuate love as the central narrative of one's life the search for a connection forged by love permeates every facet of human existence from our desire to be accepted or our longing to be needed to our fury at being rejected Sometimes love is the stuff of happiness fulfilling in every regard But there are also times when love makes us do things we should not do sometimes it turns us into people we do not want to become The commonality between love that satisfies and love that destroys is the bond between people who open themselves to the vulnerability of love Examination of the theme of familial bonds in film and television explores how the process of forming and maintaining those bonds complicates revises and reproduces ideas about love The chapters in this book explore how the nature of bonds and familial responsibility inform a popular cultural dialogue about the changing nature of the American family over the past sixty years      A Raisin in the Sun Lorraine Hansberry, 1959 The title comes from the poem Harlem also known as A Dream Deferred by Langston Hughes The story tells of a Black family's experiences in south Chicago as they attempt to improve their financial circumstances with an insurance payout following the death of the father and deals with matters of housing discrimination racism and assimilation

Adaptation as a Transmedial Process Mimmo Cangiano ,Filippo Luca Sambugaro, 2023-06-30 This miscellaneous volume aims at offering a fresh and updated view of adaptation and transmedial practices In the wake of Linda Hutcheon's groundbreaking study A Theory of Adaptation 2006 it discusses theories and exemplary case studies from different critical perspectives and points of view assessing past and present trends and envisioning future prospects The volume is divided in three macro sections Theories explores some methodological and theoretical facets of adaptation Practices I includes analyses of literary cinematographic and theatrical texts Practices II discusses transmedial examples relating to arts The book ends with the interview with the Czech German artist Michael Bielick a pioneer in the use of multiple media especially digital ones      The Work of Democracy Ben Keppel, 1995 By carefully tracing the public lives of Bunche Clark and

Hansberry Keppel shows how the mainstream media selectively appropriated the most challenging themes and goals of the struggle for racial equality so that difficult questions about the relationship between racism and American democracy could be softened if not entirely evaded

Communists in Closets Bettina Aptheker, 2022-09-09 Communists in Closets Queering the History 1930s 1990s explores the history of gay lesbian and non heterosexual people in the Communist Party in the United States The Communist Party banned lesbian gay bisexual and transgender LGBT people from membership beginning in 1938 when it cast them off as degenerates It persisted in this policy until 1991 During this 60 year ban gays and lesbians who did join the Communist Party were deeply closeted within it as well as in their public lives as both queer and Communist By the late 1930s the Communist Party had a membership approaching 100 000 and tens of thousands more people moved in its orbit through the Popular Front against fascism anti racist organizing especially in the south and its widely read cultural magazine The New Masses Based on a decade of archival research correspondence and interviews Bettina Aptheker explores this history also pulling from her own experience as a closeted lesbian in the Communist Party in the 1960s and 70s Ironically and in spite of this homophobia individual Communists laid some of the political and theoretical foundations for lesbian and gay liberation and women s liberation and contributed significantly to peace social justice civil rights and Black and Latinx liberation movements This book will be of interest to students scholars and general readers in political history gender studies and the history of sexuality
