

A landscape photograph of a wooden cabin in a forest. The cabin is made of horizontal logs and has a porch with a railing. The background is filled with tall evergreen trees and a bright, glowing sun that is partially obscured by clouds, creating a warm and golden light. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and serene.

Reparations and the Human David L. Eng, 2025-03-21 The Holocaust and the atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki invoked in graphic terms the specter of total human destruction In response a new international order of reparations and human rights arose from the ashes of World War II This legal regime sought to subrogate the sovereignty of the nation state in order to defend the sovereignty of the human being While the Holocaust's history is settled Nazis were perpetrators and Jews were victims there remains little historical consensus as to the victims and perpetrators of the atomic bombings In Reparations and the Human David L Eng investigates a history of reparations across the Transpacific He analyzes how concepts of reparation established during colonial settlement and the European Enlightenment shape contemporary configurations of the human and human rights determining who can be recognized as victims who must be seen as perpetrators and who deserves repair As demands for reparations now occupy center stage in debates concerning unresolved legacies of dispossession and Transatlantic slavery Eng considers how the Cold War Transpacific provides a limit case for the politics of repair and definitions of the human Measure of People and Space Interactions in the Built Environment Abubakar Danladi Isah, Isa Bala Muhammad, 2019-02-28 This book is an edited collection of seven chapters on the theme of people and space interactions in different settings Using a variety of problems it showcases a rich set of solutions to the global challenges of functional sustainable and responsive habitats in both urban and rural environments The book deals with cultural landscapes sustainable housing settings the environment and human response spatial epidemiology neighbourhood and health and the subjectivity objectivity continuum in man environment research The studies apply a variety of social research methods and strategies relevant to the study of human interaction with its environment Collectively they serve as templates for direction in modern social science research methodology built on evidence based scientific inquiry of the built environment It can guide both young and seasoned researchers in considering appropriate responses to various social research problems including assessing various options in research process innovation A recurrent lesson from the individual studies and significant contribution of the volume is that each research endeavor needs to be based on a firm philosophical grounding as this goes a long way in determining the type of data to be collected and the ways that they are analysed and interpreted Taking a cross disciplinary perspective this edited collection should be of interest to scholars of geography anthropology sociology epidemiology urban planning architecture and above all environment behaviour studies

This Silence Must Now Speak T. Altizer, 2016-04-30 In these letters to friends and colleagues spanning around twenty years renowned radical theologian Thomas J J Altizer offers a series of meditative mini essays on religious theological political and philosophical matters that are central and vital to our contemporary era *We ought not to alter the Ordinal. Remarks upon the paper of ... G. P. Reichel, ... "Shall we alter the Ordinal?"
