leg to cure your PC's ailments Make your own house calls instead with Leo Laporte's PC Help Desk in a Book Family Computer Fun Ralph Bond, 2005 Family Computer Fun: Digital Ideas Using Your Photos, Movies and Music will give you ideas for dozens of fun projects to enjoy with your family. The book starts with a quick tour of what's needed for the projects in the book which doubles as a guide to buying a new PC or products to enhance your current one. Projects in the book include creating custom photo albums to share, editing photos to add effects or retouch, uploading home movies to edit and burn to DVDs, sharing video or photos over the Internet, and turning a PC into a home recording studio. Later chapters offer a quick guide to streaming video and audio to a TV and stereo in the living room. The author creates each project with tools that are both affordable and easy to use and finishes with pointers to more advanced software should you want to explore further. Unlike other books on digital media, the activities in Family Computer Fun are designed with the family in mind with software that anyone can use and projects that will be fun for the entire family to explore together. Absolute Beginner's Guide to Home Networking Mark Edward Soper, 2004-10-13 Finally there is a guide to home networking that was written for true beginners. The Absolute Beginner's Guide to Home Networking goes far beyond traditional printer or Internet sharing and is geared to help you understand home network types and concepts, install, configure and interconnect various types of wired and wireless networks. This easy-to-understand guide will help you achieve the desired goals of entertainment, information access and home security control with Windows, MacOS and Linux based systems. Soon you will learn to share and enhance entertainment and even integrate business network hardware with a home network to exploit telecommuting, work from home and remote education opportunities. Library Journal, 2005 Library Journal Melvil Dewey, Richard Rogers, Bowker, L.
