Great Masks Oto Bihalji-Merin,1972 Man is the creature with a mask His mask his other face transforms him for it is the implement of magic and ritual adornment and protection it conceals and frightens entertains and inspires it is the face of day with eyes open or of night with eyes closed its expression symbolizes life and death at the same time An age old desire to achieve physical and spiritual metamorphosis has linked man and mask And it is no different today for man in seeking to find himself in a faceless technological society is creating a modern mythology with masks of its own Primitive man used masks to help him master nature and the mysteries of the spiritual world Modern man must cope with the gigantic forces of the cosmos but his space helmet looks no less strange than the disguise of ancient ritual This compelling volume devoted to the mask as a universal instrument of man s protean ability to transform himself both physically and psychologically bridges vast differences in culture geography time and space to illustrate the common origins and functions of the mask in its many forms Oto Bihalji Merin noted European art critic and historian traces the evolution of the mask exploring its relevance to totemism and ritual war and death theatrical spectacle religion the many faces of pantomime the painter s vision and holiday festival celebration Even the familiar contemporary conditions of conformity and protest are revealed as disguises which mask the inner self as effectively as did a knight s helmet and visor The mask is never merely a primitive artifact at the height of its creative development it becomes a truly sophisticated work of art This is evident in the superb illustrations that fill these pages with the richness of color form design and detail so characteristic of this fascinating means of expression      The Way of the Strong Ridgwell Cullum,1914      The Bookman ,1909      Olde Penn ,1919
