L'architecture des Lumières de Soufflot à Ledoux Allan Braham, 1982 L'architecture de Soufflot Ledoux Hut Pavilion Shrine: Architectural Archetypes in Mid-Century Modernism Miles David Samson, 2016-03-09 The phase of American architectural history we call mid century modernism 1940 1980 saw the spread of Modern Movement tenets of functionalism social service and anonymity into mainstream practice It also saw the spread of their seeming opposites Temples arcades domes and other traditional types occur in both modernist and traditionalist forms from the 1950s to the 1970s Hut Pavilion Shrine examines this crossroads of modernism and the archetypal and critiques its buildings and theory The book centers on one particularly important and omnipresent type the pavilion a type which was the basis of major work by Louis I Kahn Paul Rudolph Philip Johnson Minoru Yamasaki and other eminent architects While focusing primarily on the architecture culture of the United States it also includes the work of British European Team X and Scandinavian designers and writers Making connections between formal analysis historical context and theory the book continues lines of inquiry which have been pursued by Neil Levine and Anthony Vidler on representation and by Sarah Goldhagen and Alice Friedman on modernism's forbidden elements of the honorific and the visually pleasurable It highlights the significance of pavilionizing mid century designers such as Victor Lundy John Johansen Eero Saarinen and Edward Durrell Stone and shows how frequently essentialist and traditionalist types appeared in the roadside vernacular of drive in restaurants gas stations furniture and car showrooms branch banks and motels The book ties together the threads in mid century architectural theory that addressed aspects of type essential structure and primal humanistic aspects of environment making and discusses how these concerns outlived the mid century moment and in the designs and writings of Aldo Rossi and others they paved the way for Post Modernism les cahiers de la recherche architecturale CLASSICISME , L'urbanisme parisien au siècle des Lumières Michel Le Moël, Sophie Descat, 1997 Architecture, Print Culture and the Public Sphere in Eighteenth-Century France Richard Wittman, 2007 This book focuses on the complex ways in which architectural practice theory patronage and experience became modern with the rise of a mass public and a reconfigured public sphere between the end of the seventeenth century and the French Revolution Presenting a fresh theoretical orientation and a large body of new primary research this book offers a new cultural history of virtually all the major monuments of eighteenth century Parisian architecture with detailed analyses of the public debates that erupted around such Parisian monuments as the east facade of the Louvre the Place Louis XV the Place de la Concorde and the church of Sainte Genevieve the Pantheon Depicting the passage of architecture into a mediated public culture as a turning point and interrogating it as a symptom of the distinctly modern configuration of individual society and space that emerged during this period this study will interest readers well beyond the discipline of architectural history

Monuments et mémoires publiés par l'Académie des inscriptions et belles-lettres Fondation Eugène Piot, 2000 Biographical sketch of Eugène Piot by Georges Perrot in v 1 p vii xxiii with portrait in text Futures & Ruins Nina L. Dubin, Hubert Robert, 2010 In this timely and provocative study Hubert Robert's paintings of urban ruins are interpreted as manifestations of a new consciousness of time one shaped by the uncertainties of an economy characterized by the dread-inducing expansion of credit frenzied speculation on the stock exchange and bold ventures in real estate As the favored artist of an enterprising Parisian elite Robert is a prophetic case study of the intersections between aesthetics and modernity's dawning business culture At the center of this lively narrative lie Robert's depictions of the ruins of Paris macabre and spectacular paintings of fires and demolitions created on the eve of the French Revolution Drawing on a vast range of materials Futures Ruins understands these artworks as harbingers of a modern appetite for destruction The paintings are examined as expressions of the pleasures and perils of a risk economy This captivating account lavishly illustrated with rarely reproduced objects recovers the critical significance of the eighteenth century cult of ruins and of Robert s art for our times
