Bo Tsotsi The Youth Gangs Of Soweto 1935 1976:

Bo-tsotsi Clive Glaser, 2000 Crime and the closely related issues of youth culture and unemployment are among the most important social concerns facing post apartheid leadership in South Africa This is a textured social history of African youth gangs in the Johannesburg Soweto area from the emergence of a juvenile delinquency crisis in the 1930s through to the student led uprising of 1976 Children and Youth in African History SE Duff, 2022-12-12 This textbook introduces readers to the academic scholarship on the history of childhood and youth in sub Saharan Africa with a particular focus on the colonial and postcolonial eras In a series of seven chapters it addresses key themes in the historical scholarship arguing that age serves as a useful category for historical analysis in African history Just as race class and gender can be used to understand how African societies have been structured over time so too age is a powerful tool for thinking about how power youth and seniority intersect and change over time This is then a work of synthesis rather than of new research based on primary sources This book will therefore introduce mainstream scholars of the history of childhood and youth to the literature on Africa and scholars of youth in Africa to debates within the wider field of the history of children and youth

Limpopo's Legacy Anne Heffernan, 2019 Argues that the historical primacy of youth politics in Limpopo South Africa has influenced the production of generations of nationally prominent youth and student activists among them Julius Malema Onkgopotse Tiro Cyril Ramaphosa Frank Chikane and Peter Mokaba The Vaal Uprising of 1984 & the Struggle for Freedom in South Africa Franziska Rueedi, 2021 Offers new insights into the struggle against Apartheid and the poverty and inequality that instigated political resistance Apartheid on a Black Isle D. Curry, 2012-10-31 In this single square mile hemmed in by White areas residents engaged in what is arguably the most multi faceted inventive and versatile strategy of resistance during the 1970s Apartheid on a Black Isle brings to the fore the definitive but underappreciated role that Alexandra played in advancing human rights Using their manufactured space Alexandrans revolutionized the South African freedom struggle by fertilizing the underground movement by joining in solidarity with Soweto during the student uprising and by finding unique ways to grieve This book explores and introduces ordinary Alexandrans whose narratives challenged preconceived notions of resistance identity gender and space Rethinking South Africa's Past Christopher J. Lee, Andrew Offenburger, 2025-03-18 This book presents key historical scholarship published in Safundi from 1999 to 2024 tracing South Africa's past through approaches of comparative history transnational history and visual history in addition to addressing the importance of topics like gender labor and class dynamics as well as regional historiographies The first section of the book focuses on comparative history as a founding method for Safundi given the journal's origins in American and South African studies while also recalibrating this approach through a variety of topics cities biographies and practices of violence rather than nation states writ large Drawing upon innovative sources of evidence the second section moves beyond the comparative method to address transnational histories as a new narrative technique for storytelling and analysis Whether issues of education immigration or visiting musicians to South Africa these chapters demonstrate the importance of a post national approach for understanding the past The sections that follow fan out into other subject areas including the uses of visual history gender roles class cultures and environmental history all of which illuminate connections between South African history and other parts of the world This book will be an indispensable resource for scholars students activists and policymakers as well as those readers who are generally interested in understanding South Africa s complex history over the past several centuries The Blackwell Companion to Criminology Colin Sumner,2007-10-08 The Blackwell Companion to Criminology provides a contemporary and global resource to scholarship in both classical and topical areas of criminology Written accessibly and with its international perspective and first rate scholarship this is truly the first global handbook of criminology Editors and contributors are international experts in criminology offering a comparative perspective on theories and systems Contains full discussion of key debates and theories the implications of new topics studies and ideas and contemporary developments Coverage includes class gender and race criminal justice juvenile delinquency punishment mass media international crimes and social control Young Women Against Apartheid Emily Bridger,2021 Provides a new perspective on the struggle against apartheid and contributes to key debates in South African history gender inequality sexual violence and the legacies of the liberation struggle WINNER OF THE RHS GLADSTONE BOOK PRIZE 2022 WINNER OF THE SOCIETY FOR THE HISTORY OF CHILDREN AND YOUTH GRACE ABBOTT BOOK PRIZE 2021 SHORTLISTED FOR THE ASUK FAGE relate their personal experiences to collective histories of the struggle and insert themselves into a historical narrative from which they have been excluded Through exploring these women s memories this book serves as an important corrective to South Africa s male centric literature on violence and provides a new gendered perspective on the wider histories of township politics activism and conflict Community, Culture and Resistance in Alexandria [i.e. Alexandra], South Africa, 1912-1985 Dawne Y. Curry,2006 Making the Town John Parker,2000 This title incorporates a social history of a West African urban community during the colonial period or under colonialism The focus is centered on town politics and the ways in which the Ga political action shaped Accra s t ransition from pre colonial city state to colonial port city Choice ,2001 Sociological Abstracts Leo P.
