Fighters Jim Cox,2015-06-14 In the early days of radio producers directors and scriptwriters were well aware of the listening public's fascination with subject matter tinged with wrongdoing Stories of right and wrong crime and punishment and law and order kept audiences of every age hooked for more than thirty years This work covers 300 syndicated radio mystery and adventure serials that aired in the early or middle twentieth century To be included a series must have had one or more regularly appearing characters who fought against espionage theft murder and other crimes Each entry includes series name air dates sponsor extant episodes cast information and synopsis Sold on Radio Jim Cox,2008-09-18 How was it that America would fund its nascent national radio services Government control and a subscription like model were both considered Soon an advertising system emerged leading radio into its golden age from the 1920s to the early 1960s This work divided into two parts studies the commercialization of network radio during its golden age The first part covers the general history of radio advertising The second examines major radio advertisers of the period with profiles of 24 companies who maintained a strong presence on the airwaves Appendices provide information on 100 additional advertisers unusual advertisement formats and a glossary The book has notes and a bibliography and is fully indexed Radio Speakers Jim Cox,2024-10-17 In the days before television radio was the constant voice in American life When radio spoke America listened especially to the men and women who spoke directly to their unseen audience Sometimes formal sometimes as familiar as the friend next door their presence filled the airwaves announcers newscasters sportscasters showbiz reporters advice consultants emcees and breakfast chatterboxes These radio personalities became as popular and familiar as the most public faces of the time Here among profiles of more than 1100 radio speakers are famous names like George Ansbro Red Barber H V Kaltenborn Dorothy Kilgallen Edward R Murrow Louella Parsons Walter Winchell and more Also amply represented are hundreds of lesser known individuals who left indelible auditory impressions Whether their fame was forever or fleeting all were a part of the American voice during the grand epoch of network radio Radio Rides the Range Jack French,David S. Siegel,2013-11-05 This is a comprehensive encyclopedia to the more than 100 radio programs portraying the American West in fact and fiction heard by generations of listeners from the Great Depression through the Cold War era The book includes both the popular and lesser known series as well as offerings that never made it past the audition stage Each entry describes the series the extent to which it was based on actual facts the audience it was written for and its broadcast history The descriptions also examine how the programs reflected society's changing social and cultural attitudes towards racial and ethnic minorities and the role of women The availability of surviving audio copies and original scripts is noted An extensive bibliography and several appendices provide additional sources of information about Western programming during the Golden Age of Radio 500 Great Comic Book Action Heroes Mike Conroy,2003 Trying to undo the spell of the evil Dally Rumpe Beatrice travels to a seaside resort where she meets her father's great uncle and cousins and learns about their connection to the evil sorcerer Garage Sale and Flea Market Annual Bob Huxford,Sharon Huxford,1998-04 Packed with descriptions and current values for nearly 25 000 collectibles representing virtually every collectible category on today's market old books sports cards ornaments toys 50s glassware just to name a few this guide also provides expert advice on recognizing great buys reselling items or holding a successful sales Comics Values Annual 2007 Alex Malloy,2007-03-30 Cross referenced listings aid in easily identifying and accurately assessing collections
