Body Sweats The Uncensored Writings Of Elsa Von Freytag Loringhoven:

Body Sweats Elsa Von Freytag-Loringhoven, 2011-10-28 The first major collection of poetry written in English by the flabbergasting and flamboyant Baroness Elsa the first American Dada As a neurasthenic kleptomaniac man chasing proto punk poet and artist the Baroness Elsa von Freytag Loringhoven left in her wake a ripple that is becoming a rip one hundred years after she exploded onto the New York art scene As an agent provocateur within New York's modernist revolution the first American Dada not only dressed and behaved with purposeful outrageousness but she set an example that went well beyond the eccentric divas of the twenty first century including her conceptual descendant Lady Gaga Her delirious verse flabbergasted New Yorkers as much as her flamboyant persona As a poet she was profane and playfully obscene imagining a farting God and transforming her contemporary Marcel Duchamp into M ars my arse With its ragged edges and atonal rhythms her poetry echoes the noise of the metropolis itself Her love poetry muses graphically on ejaculation orgasm and oral sex When she tired of existing words she created new ones phalluspistol spinsterlollipop kissambushed The Baroness's rebellious highly sexed howls prefigured the Beats her intensity and psychological complexity anticipates the poetic utterances of Anne Sexton and Sylvia Plath Published more than a century after her arrival in New York Body Sweats is the first major collection of Elsa von Freytag Loringhoven's poems in English The Baroness's biographer Irene Gammel and coeditor Suzanne Zelazo have assembled 150 poems most of them never before published Many of the poems are themselves art objects decorated in red and green ink adorned with sketches and diagrams presented with the same visceral immediacy they had when they were composed Revisiting the Poetics and Politics of Modernism Tamlyn Avery, Sascha

Morrell, 2025-12-02 This book revisits women's literature in 1922 long hailed as the miracle year of literary modernism a landmark year of avant garde innovations in publications that included James Joyce's Ulysses T S Eliot's The Waste Land and Ezra Pound's The Cantos Yet if 1922 has been considered a modernist annus mirabilis it was many things besides In 1922 or thereabouts according to Willa Cather the literary world broke in two sequestering traditional writers from those considered modern Many women writers produced work that year across a spectrum of genres forms and politics that would not be accepted into Hugh Kenner's modernist canon Nor however did they readily fit into Cather's categories in some cases rupturing and in other cases affirming a consensus of modernism as a masculinist culturally imperialist interwar enterprise Considering 1922's historical significance the essays in this collection seek greater inclusion of women in our memory of this year including writers from a range of global and regional contexts and cultural backgrounds Extending other attempts to examine the gender politics of modernism modernity over the past thirty years the project draws connections between the significance of 1922 as it has been understood in the new modernist studies and feminist literary criticism that utilizes single year approaches to revisit and reflect on women's history and the gender politics of modernism Physics and the way relationship between literature modern physics and avant garde art movements this book focuses on four key poets William Carlos Williams Mina Loy the Baroness Elsa von Freytag Loringhoven and Wallace Stevens whose lives crossed paths in 20th century New York This book explores how modernist art movements have shaped these writers thinking about physics in relation to their work demonstrating how science s new ideas about measurement and how to visualize material reality provoked innovative poetic forms and images From Einstein s visit to New York City in 1921 to the impact of the atomic bomb the author traces the flow of ideas about physics through culture linking the new physics with modern approaches to art found in Cubism Futurism Dada and Surrealism Serial Encounters Clare Hutton,2019-06-06 James Joyce s Ulysses was first published in New York in the Little Review between 1918 and 1920 What kind of reception did it have and how does the serial version of the text differ from the version most readers know the iconic volume edition published in Paris in 1922 by Shakespeare and Company Joyce prepared much of Ulysses for serial publication while resident in Zurich between 1915 and 1919 This original study based on sustained archival research goes behind the scenes in Zurich and New York in order to recover long forgotten facts that are pertinent to the writing reception and interpretation of Ulysses The Little Review serialization of Ulysses proved controversial from the outset and was ultimately stopped before Joyce had completed the work The New York Society for the Suppression of Vice had taken successful legal action against the journal s editors on the grounds that the final instalment of the thirteenth chapter of Ulysses was obscene This triumph of the social purity movement had far reaching repercussions for Joyce s subsequent publishing history and for his ongoing efforts with the composition of Ulysses After chapters of contextual literary history on the cultural world of the Little Review the early production history of Ulysses and the New York trial of 1921 the study moves to a consideration of the textual significance of the serialization It breaks new ground in Joycean scholarship by paying critical attention to Ulysses as a serial text The study concludes by examining the myriad ways in which Joyce revised and augmented Ulysses while resident in Paris it shows how Joyce made Ulysses more sexually suggestive and overt in explicit response to the work s legal reception in New York Wireless Dada Kurt Beals,2019-11-15 Wireless Dada Telegraphic Poetics in the Avant Garde demonstrates that the poetics of the Dada movement was profoundly influenced by the telegraph and the technological and social transformations that it brought about in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries While telegraphy s impact on Italian Futurism and German Expressionism is widely acknowledged its formative role in Dada poetics has been largely neglected Drawing on media history and theory avant garde studies and German literary studies Kurt Beals shows how the telegraph and the cultural discourses that surrounded it shaped the radical works of this seminal avant garde movement The nonsense strain in Dada is frequently seen as a response to the senseless violence of the First World War Beals argues that it was not just the war that turned Dada poetry into a jumble of senseless signals it was also the wireless Lances All Alike Suzanne Zelazo,2018-05-01 Modernist poet painters Mina Loy and Baroness Elsa von Freytag Loringhoven had many friends in common including Djuna Barnes and Marcel Duchamp yet there is no record that the two ever met Their non relationship presents a curious absent presence in modernist history Zelazo weaves lines of poetry by both women into an imaginary conversation exploring the way their work has been suppressed stitched spliced and edited by male editors and arbiters of taste New Books on Women and Feminism ,2014 New Books on Women, Gender and Feminism ,2014 The Great Mother Massimiliano Gioni,Roberta Tenconi,2015 Whether as a symbol of creativity or as a metaphor for art itself the archetype of the mother has been a central figure in the history of art from the Venuses of the Stone Age to the bad girls of the postfeminist era and through centuries of religious works depicting innumerable maternity scenes The more familiar version of Mamma has also become a stereotype closely tied to the image of Italy In undertaking an analysis of the representation of motherhood the catalogue The Great Mother will trace a history of women s empowerment chronicling gender struggles sexual politics and clashes between tradition and emancipation The volume will mix past and present juxtaposing contemporary art historical works and artifacts from the world of film and literature weaving a rich tapestry of associations and images The volume will bring together nearly 300 colour images illustrating monographic texts and in depth information on all the artists in the exhibition and a collection of new essays and criticism written specifically for the occasion by Massimiliano Gioni Lucia Re Adrien Sina Ruth Hemus Calvin Tomkins Whitney Chadwick Guido Tintori Matteo Pavesi Marco Belpoliti Raffaella Perna Pietro Rigolo Lea Vergine Barbara Casavecchia
