Perfectionism Among Women Seeking Help for Deliberate Self-harm And/or Eating Disorders Anne Elisabeth Kubal, 2005 Parenting 911 Charlene C. Giannetti, Margaret Sagarese, 1999 Describes the problems faced by today's middle schoolers and explains what concerned parents can do to help their children. The Publishers Weekly, 1998 Resilience in Action Michael Ungar, Linda Liebenberg, 2008 Mental health specialists and researchers contend that the development of resilience in youth is facilitated at several levels. Relational cultural individual and governmental factors all have a strong influence over the mental well being of young people. Resilience in Action looks at youth interventions with a view to fostering resilience in those living in adverse situations and conditions. In order to provide a practical approach to the issue the essays in this volume explore the components of successful interventions encouraging the transmission of effective practices from one community to another across borders. It is organized into four sections each dealing with a different aspect of work with at risk youth. The first section focuses on individual health and the ways in which intervention and therapy strengthen personal resources. The second section explores the dynamics of interventions in relation to specific contexts and localized relationships emphasizing holistic approaches to youth work. A review of the cultural relevance of resilience follows in section three and the fourth considers ways of increasing the accessibility to resources that encourage healthy development. Featuring contributors from a variety of academic and cultural backgrounds Resilience in Action offers diverse answers to many of the persistent questions mental health professionals ask regarding how to enhance resilience.
