"These observations from RGA-2 show much of the same information as the previous series. However, the following additional information is presented under the General Photo Report section:

1. The location of RGA-2 is 10 miles from the 1960 test site. The 1960 test report describes many features of RGA-2 and its vicinity. Thus, the information presented may be compared with the 1960 test report for identification, generalization or use by the target committee. The location of RGA-2 is shown on the following map and indicated by callout feature.
