The Whole Story and Other Stories Ali Smith, 2007-12-18 From the critically acclaimed award winning author comes a collection of uniquely inventive stories that thread the labyrinth of coincidence chance and connections missed and made What happens when you run into Death in a busy train station You know he's Death because when he smiles your cell phone goes dead What if your lover falls in love with a tree Should you be jealous From the woman pursued by a band of bagpipers in full regalia to the artist who's built a seven foot boat out of secondhand copies of The Great Gatsby Smith's characters are offbeat charming sexy and as wonderfully complex as life itself

Across Boundaries Claudia Capancioni, Mariaconcetta Costantini, Mara Mattoscio, 2023-11-22 This collection of essays aims to widen the current critique on borders by examining their entanglements with constructions of identity and disciplinary categories In particular it calls into question established models of gender notions of narrative genres and typological genera of borders in today's literary artistic philosophical and socio political discourse The chapters interrogate boundaries and boundary crossing not only in terms of geographical frontiers and the physical acts of trespassing but also as discursive constructs that police crossing subjects as gendered subjects on the one hand and identify artistic genres and academic disciplines as fixed sealed in ways of understanding the world on the other Taking inspiration from the multiple meanings of the Italian word genere which stands for gender genre and typology genus simultaneously the volume reflects on the gendered narrative and typological nature of borders and border imagery and on the significance and potentialities of crossover phenomena taking place in borderlands in the fields of arts literature anthropology sociology and philosophy

Winter Ali Smith, 2017 Winter Bleak Frosty wind earth as iron water as stone so the old song goes The shortest days the longest nights The trees are bare and shivering The summer's leaves Dead litter The world shrinks the sap sinks But winter makes things visible And if there's ice there'll be fire Girl Meets Boy Ali Smith, 2008-11-20 Girl meets boy It's a story as old as time But what happens when an old story meets a brand new set of circumstances Ali Smith's remix of Ovid's most joyful metamorphosis is a story about the kind of fluidity that can't be bottled and sold It is about girls and boys girls and girls love and transformation a story of puns and doubles reversals and revelations Funny and fresh poetic and political here is a tale of change for the modern world Diffraction Reading Kai Merten, 2021-05-27 Putting the New Materialist figure of diffraction to use in a set of readings in which cultural texts are materially read against their contents and their themes against their readers or against other texts this volume proposes a critical intervention into the practice of reading itself In this book reading and reading methodology are probed for their materiality and re considered as being inevitably suspended between or diffracted with both matter and discourse The history of literary and cultural reading including poststructuralism and critical theory is revisited in a new light and opened up for a future in which the world and reading are no longer regarded as conveniently separate spheres but recognized as deeply entangled and intertwined Diffractional Reading ultimately represents a new reading of reading itself firstly by critiquing the distanced perspective of critical paradigms such as translation and intertextuality in which texts encountered processed or otherwise subdued secondly showing how all literary and cultural readings represent different agential cuts in the world text reader constellation which is always both discursive and material and thirdly the volume materializes dynamizes and politicizes the activity of reading by drawing attention to reading's intervention in and co-creation of the world in which we live Infrastructures of Crisis in Global Twenty-First-Century Literature Lucy Neave, 2025-10-31 Discourse about crisis is pervasive in the mass media and scholarship and in discussions about the discipline of literary studies Contemporary narratives about crisis concern systems and infrastructures on which societies rely This book critically engages with crises as events of excess which surpass containment efforts by governments and institutions as occurrences that generate conflicting discourses meanings and political responses and as entangled with visible and underlying structures Infrastructures of Crisis concentrates on the evocation of infrastructure in literary and filmic texts about real world events such as nuclear accidents the refugee crisis pandemics and climate change and works across scholarly conversations to examine how a range of cataclysms is figured as well as how cultural products dramatise infrastructures entanglements with neoliberalism and colonialism The Story of Antigone Ali Smith, Sophocles, 2019-03-26 Now there's a girl who understands things the crowd thought When two brothers Eteocles and Polynices die in a vicious battle over the crown of Thebes the new ruler King Creon decides that Eteocles will be buried as a hero while Polynices will be left outside as a feast for the dogs and crows But the young Antigone daughter of Oedipus will defy the cruel tyrant and attempt to give her brother the burial he deserves This simple act of love and bravery will set in motion a terrible course of events that will reverberate across the entire kingdom Dave Eggers says of the series I couldn't be prouder to be a part of it Ever since Alessandro conceived this idea I thought it was brilliant The editions that they've compiled have been lushly illustrated and elegantly designed Spring Ali Smith, 2019-04-30 From the Man Booker Prize Finalist comes the third novel in her Seasonal Quartet a New York Times Notable Book and longlisted for the Orwell Prize for Political Fiction 2020 What unites Katherine Mansfield Charlie Chaplin Shakespeare Rilke Beethoven Brexit the present the past the north the south the east the west a man mourning lost times a woman trapped in modern times Spring The great connective With an eye to the migrancy of story over time and riffing on Pericles one of Shakespeare's most resistant and rollicking works Ali Smith tells the impossible tale of an impossible time In a time of walls and lockdown Smith opens the door The time we're living in is changing nature Will it change the nature of story Hope springs eternal Like Ali Smith, 2024-04-02 Ali Smith's beautifully written precise poetic The Observer debut that follows the briefly intertwined lives of two young women When we meet Amy Shone she is a young parent struggling to raise Kate a precocious eight year old Amy is an enigma a brilliant scholar who has forgotten how to read She is estranged from her wealthy English parents and lives a nomadic life in Scotland dragging Kate from one school to the next barely scraping by And then there is Ash a fiery Scottish actress who cannot shake her demons chief among them an unrequited passion for Amy that has obsessed her ever since they met as teenagers Like is the story of two parallel lives that intersect briefly then diverge It is also a timeless evocation of adolescence and its agonizing anticipations its contradictory yearnings for freedom and safety its blind quest for mastery over pleasure and pain Deftly constructed passionately imagined Like is a remarkable debut from a powerful talent

There But For The Ali Smith, 2012-07-24 From the acclaimed award winning author when a dinner party guest named Miles locks himself in an upstairs room and refuses to come out he sets off a media frenzy He also sets in motion a mesmerizing puzzle of a novel one that harnesses acrobatic verbal playfulness to a truly affecting story Miles communicates only by cryptic notes slipped under the door We see him through the eyes of four people who barely know him ranging from a precocious child to a confused elderly woman But while the characters wit and wordplay soar their story remains profoundly grounded As it probes our paradoxical need for both separation and true connection There but for the balances cleverness with compassion the surreal with the deeply movingly real in a way that only Ali Smith can
