Alison Balter's Mastering Microsoft Office Access 2003 Alison Balter, 2004 What Alison's book offers over other books in that she is able to take a highly technical topic and present it in a manner that is easy to comprehend. It is a book that the reader will often want to read from cover to cover but it can also act as an excellent reference. Readers of this book will learn Access 11 application development and real world solutions to specific development and programming problems. Professional programming techniques backed by concise no nonsense explanations of the underlying theories. Debugging and troubleshooting methods to solve problems quickly and get stalled development projects back on track. Alison Balter's

Mastering Microsoft Access 2002 Desktop Development Alison Balter, 2002 Master Access development from Access insider and trainer Alison Balter Alison Balter's Mastering Access 2002 Enterprise Development Alison Balter, 2002

This book offers a no nonsense approach to enterprise development using Access 2002 as a front end. Written by best selling author Alison Balter it is practical in style and easily transitions the client server neophyte to the sophisticated world of enterprise development. Includes all of the techniques that an Access developer needs to know when developing a client server application. Smoothly transitions the Access developer into the enterprise application development world. Complete source code and reusable examples are available on the CD ROM included with the book and can also be downloaded from the book's Web page. Developing applications for the enterprise introduces challenges quite different from those associated with developing applications for desktops or small departments. Although the book focuses on client server development the text covers other enterprise topics such as replication transaction processing and data access pages. Alison Balter is the founder of InfoTechnology Partners Inc a California based computer consulting firm. Alison is a highly experienced independent trainer and consultant specializing in Windows applications training and development. During her seventeen years in the computer industry she has trained and consulted with many corporations and government agencies including Shell Oil Prudential Insurance and the Archdiocese of Los Angeles.
