Apple Inc. 2018 Company Analysis... for Beginners.: Financial Statements and Financial Ratios: Defined, Discussed and Analyzed (5 Years). Paul E. Borosky Mba,2019-03-20 Apple Incorporated is one of the most sought after stocks in the world The company s legendary founder Steve Jobs is world renowned Apple Inc continues to innovate and disrupt its industry under the current leadership of Tim Cook These circumstances have resulted in the organization becoming an industry leader For some investors these circumstances alone is justification for investing in a company However most people prefer to have an in depth understanding of the company's main financial statements and financial ratios. By understanding the company's financial statements and financial ratios, investors may be better informed before making an investment decision. In this book, we include a review of Apple's last 5 years of financial statements, specifically the income statement and balance sheet. I mean a line-by-line review. Further, we calculate, define, and discuss numerous financial ratios covering a 5-year time frame for the company. This book is meant for investors and business students. In our financial statement review, I start off with defining each line commonly included in an income statement and balance sheet. Next, I walk you through analyzing the financial statements using Apple Inc. summarized financial statements as a guide. Once this is complete, we then discuss financial ratios. The financial ratio section is structured so you can quickly understand the ratio and see how they are applied to Apple. For each financial ratio, I first define the ratio in simple terms. In other words, you will actually be able to understand what the ratio means. Next, I supply you with the formula used to calculate Apple's various financial ratios for the last five years. I do all the heavy Excel calculations for you. Finally, I analyze the ratio using historical trends. In the end, a thorough understanding of the ratios should be achieved.

Seminar paper from the year 2013 in the subject Business Economics, Operations Research, grade B. University of Canberra, language English. Abstract: Apple Inc. has been in the electronics business since some decades in the industry. It had built its place in the markets all over the world through its dynamic strategies that focused on quality and innovation. Apple Inc. has made progress from being a loss-making company to being the biggest company in the electronics industry with incredibly high revenues and profit margins. The assignment is going to be based upon Apple Inc.'s case study and its journey as a whole to becoming a successful company. It will highlight the strategies adopted by the company, their adoption of environmental changes, and how it used these dynamics for its own benefits. Apple Inc.'s vision, mission, and beliefs as an organization, the company's strengths and weaknesses, have been highlighted in the following assignment. Also discussed in the assignment are the changing business and competitive environment and its impact on the company, the challenges it faces in such an environment, and the strategies it adopts to excel in this field. The structures that the company follows the systems on which it is based on and other operational efficiencies all play a major role in the Apple growth story The company is known for innovation and quality In spite of the premium prices the company has almost a maximum market share to it and continues to grow up the success ladder with its ever evolving product line which is a mixture of quality innovation and highly detailed mechanics Apple continues to not only survive but excels in the electronics market which is becoming more and more competitive by the day
