Breaking Barriers Aimee Dawis,2012-06-10 As members of a tiny ethnic minority in Indonesia the world's largest Islamic nation Chinese Indonesian women face hurdles of race and gender that others would find insurmountable. In Breaking Barriers author Aimee Dawis profiles nine highly accomplished women who have overcome these obstacles and thrived. In this book you'll meet an Olympic gold medalist a world class concert pianist a media mogul and style icon. Plus six other extraordinary personalities in the worlds of business science sports politics and the arts. Alternative Representations of the Past Ying-Kit Chan,Fei Chen,2020-11-23 The relationship between the Chinese nation and its recent past has been fraught with contradictions and tensions. This collection aims to make sense of this complex relationship and challenge the prevalent state centric and nation centric modes of history writing on modern China. It explores alternative representations of the past and the salience of political conflicts and competitive histories in China highlighting the paradoxical similarities in such representations of the past from the late nineteenth century to the present. Ultimately this book contributes to the ongoing discussion on the politics of interpreting the past and its many manifestations in both China and other societies. This volume will contribute to the scholarly debate on the use of the past in national history. Tze ki Hon City University of Hong Kong Alternative Representations of the Past presents a collection of essays that critically examine the ways in which the contradicting and contested enterprise of history has been politicized in China. As memory is past made present the meticulous re-evaluation of Chinese history by the contributors of this volume promises to offer readers valuable insights into contemporary China. Visual Cultures of the Ethnic Chinese in Indonesia Abidin Kusno,2016-10-06 Visual Cultures of the Ethnic Chinese in Indonesia explores how visual representations shaped and were shaped by how the ethnic Chinese confronted the period of economic dislocation and radical social change during Dutch colonialism and the nationalist struggles in the decolonized Indonesia including the post 1965 and 1998 social environments. How did the ethnic Chinese communities represent themselves to both their domestic and outside world under the changing regimes of representation? How did they visualize symbolically their place in Indonesian society? How did the visual shape the ambiguities of the Chinese the perception of the economic identity and the forgetting of their involvement in politics cultures and histories of the nation? More broadly how did the visual address the interconnectedness of domestic life the urban cultural milieu and ideologies of the state and the ruling class? The book is a response to two paradoxical socio political phenomena whose convergence is shaping the experience and conceptualization of ethnic Chinese in Indonesia On the one hand the economic technological and cultural forces of colonialism and globalization have created conditions for the formation of ethnic Chinese capital ists while on the other the state generated identity and identification constituted the discourses of othering the ethnic Chinese as foreign minority

Breaking the Stereotype Dewi Anggraeni,2010 Dewi Anggraeni wrote this book because she saw that many things which did not fit the ethnic Chinese stereotype in Indonesia were rarely brought to the public s attention as they were not easily slotted into the existing neat categories I wanted to break some of the issues I deemed important out of the editing black hole and present them as the core contents of a book because they were very significant not only for others to understand but for the ethnic Chinese to understand what was happening to and around themselves

Women and Politeness Esther Kuntjara,2009-05 Chinese Indonesians in Post-Suharto Indonesia Wu-Ling Chong,2018-10-02

Selfish obscenely rich insular and opportunistic these remain how Chinese minorities in Indonesia are perceived by the indigenous population However far from being passive victims of discrimination and marginalisation Chong presents a forceful case in which Chinese Indonesians possess the agency to shape their future in the country particularly in the changing political business and socio cultural environment after the fall of Suharto While a lack of good governance that promotes the rule of law and accountability allows or even encourages some Chinese to maintain the status quo by perpetuating corrupt business practices inherited from Suharto s New Order regime there are other Chinese Indonesians who make full use of the democratic space opened up under the new administrations acting as agents of reform by participating in electoral politics and establishing inter ethnic socio cultural organisations Building on Anthony Giddens s structure agency theory and Pierre Bourdieu s notions of habitus and field Chong shows that the Chinese minorities have played an active role in the democratic process even though they continue to occupy an ambivalent position in Indonesia The Chinese Indonesians diverse strategies to safeguard their personal interests and cultural identities make a stimulating case study of what an ethnic minority could do to make a difference Backed by formidable research Chong has produced an intriguing and original view of the political social and economic activity of the still precariously placed Chinese minority in Indonesia Donald L Horowitz Duke University author of Constitutional Change and Democracy in Indonesia In this illuminating study Chong traces the political economy of Indonesia s ethnic Chinese minority as they navigate the country s post 1998 politics which is more free but still lacks strong rule of law Focusing especially on Medan and Surabaya she analyses how some have strongly supported reforms while many continue old practices of surviving and profiting by participating in massive corruption and extortion Jeffrey A Winters Northwestern University author of Oligarchy

Prominent Indonesian Chinese Leo Suryadinata,2015-08-19 Indonesia is the largest country in Southeast Asia where there is a significant number of ethnic Chinese many of whom have played an important role This book presents biographical sketches of about 530 prominent Indonesian Chinese including businessmen community leaders politicians religious leaders artists sportsmen sportswomen writers journalists academics physicians educators and scientists First published in 1972 it was revised and developed into the present format in 1978 and has since been revised several times This is the fourth and most up to date version The Chinese of Indonesia and Their Search for Identity Aimee Dawis,2009 This book examines how the Indonesian Chinese who were born after 1966 negotiate meanings about their culture and identity through their collective memory of growing up in a restrictive media environment that specifically curtailed Chinese language and culture The restrictive media environment was the result of a series of policies administered during the Suharto era 1965 1998 According to the regulations the Indonesian government closed all Chinese language schools and prohibited the use of Chinese characters in public places the import of Chinese language publications and all public forms and expressions of Chinese culture In the past century and particularly in the past decade much attention has been given to China and its rising status as a world economic power Scholarship on overseas Chinese has also shed light on their relationship with their mythic homeland China In their work scholars discovered that the Chinese of Southeast Asia have created a prominent economic political and cultural presence in countries such as Indonesia Malaysia and Singapore In the 1960s scholars such as George Kahin Ruth McVey and Benedict Anderson were drawn to the political upheavals in Indonesia and the various roles that the Chinese of Indonesia have played in the economic political and cultural arenas of their country In later years Charles Coppel and Leo Suryadinata have published extensively on various aspects of the Chinese in Indonesia such as their religious affiliations and education Despite the considerable attention given to the Chinese of Indonesia scholars have not specifically studied through the lens of the media how a certain group of Chinese Indonesians grew up in a restrictive media and cultural environment during the 33 years when Indonesia was ruled by Suharto This book takes the first step in examining this generation s collective memory of growing up in a state controlled environment that has had a significant impact on their identity formation maintenance and the re negotiation of Chineseness in their everyday lives This book will appeal especially to media cultural studies and Southeast Asian studies scholars researchers and students Bittersweet Stuart Pearson,2008 The movement of people out of China is one of the largest movements of humanity in modern times and large numbers of Chinese emigrated to the colony of the Dutch East Indies now Indonesia Bittersweet is the poignant story of one Chinese family s life in Indonesia and of their eventual emigration to Australia BACK COVER Chinese Indonesians and Regime Change Marleen Dieleman,Juliette Koning,Peter Post,2010-11-12 By taking regime change as its main theme this book offers a new perspective on the multiple roles that Chinese Indonesians played in terms of shaping moderating and stimulating social change in Indonesia Indonesian Chinese Descent In Indonesia's Economy And Political DR. Ir. Justian Suhandinata, SE,2013-02-06 For decades Chinese Indonesians have been in numerous harsh spotlights in their own country Starting from supposedly simple things like obtaining official documents to be legal citizens of Indonesia their only homeland now where they can be harassed and cornered which not seldom can extend to the extremes where they are made as victims and scapegoat particularly when issues related to racism arise Similar to other ethnic groups they also live in different economic classes Some are very wealthy some are rich some live in the middleclass economy some dwell in their simple lives some are poor and some try to survive their abject poverty In the urban areas they are seen to live a good life some are very rich or even extremely prosperous Most of these people are businessmen ranging from a colossal size to a mere small business However reality also shows that many Chinese Indonesians in the suburb areas live an uncertain day to day life and some are even extremely poor Fishermen in Tangerang North Sumatra Riau Bangka or pedicab drivers unskilled labor angkot a small public minibus drivers domestic maids office boys and blue collar workers in West Kalimantan Sambas and Singkawang and Bangka are factual examples of the grueling lives that they have to carry on striving In spite of all the facts people often forget or even intentionally ignore the facts that many Chinese Indonesians have also made positive contributions to their country in many different aspects such as economy sports culture science or political sectors to name a few These facts also need to be understood and enlightened to fellow countrymen in order to portray a more balanced objective view and non discriminatory judgment which in turn can prevent hatred dislike and other unfavorable prejudice against Indonesian citizens of Chinese descent due to the past inaccurate stereotype and labeling This book tries to present an objective portrait of Chinese Indonesians and their roles within their own beloved country and state with the very same goal of all proud Indonesian countrymen to create a stronger unity and integrity of Indonesia a country that highly values pluralism and the unity in diversity principle through the distinguished Pancasila philosophy part of the Indonesian nation the pribumi model discrimination and violence against the Chinese the process of integration and assimilation and the concept of Chinese ness as seen through ethnic Chinese literature Each of the seven chapters provides insight from different perspectives on the issue of the state and its impact on society and culture demonstrating undeniably how the Indonesian state has played a major role in shaping the political social and cultural lives of Chinese Indonesians The Making of the Indonesian Chinese Women Myra Sidharta,1984
