W. Green, 2024-09-16 The Spirit and the Song Pneumatological Reflections on Popular Music explores pertinent pneumatological issues that arise in music It offers three distinct contributions first it asks what if anything music tells listeners about God s Spiritedness Can the experience of music speak to human spiritedness the world s transcendentality or a person s own self transcendence in ways nothing else does or can Second this book explores how the Spirit functions within and even determines culture through music Because music is a profound human expression it can find itself in a rich dialogue with the Spirit Third and finally this book explores the contested status of music in Christian spiritual traditions It deals with music as inspired by the Spirit music as participation in Spiritedness and music as temptation of the flesh As such this book also engages music s placement in Christian spiritual traditions The contributors of this book ask how Christian convictions about and experiences of the Spirit might shape the way one thinks about music

city exploring shopping dining living and culture and giving readers a ringside seat on the issues shaping the region How We Love Matters Albert Tate,2022-03-08 This powerful book reimagines discipleship by begging us to acknowledge that racism exists in the Church and offers the hopeful message that we can disciple it out It is not an accident that racism is alive and well in the American church Racism has in fact been taught within the church for so long most of us don't even recognize it anymore Pastor Albert Tate guides all of us in acknowledging the racism that keeps us from loving each other the way God intends and encourages siblings in Christ to sit together in racial discomfort examining the role we may play in someone's struggle How We Love Matters is a series of nine moving letters that educate enlighten and reimagine discipleship in a way that flips the church on its head In these letters that include Dear Whiteness Dear America and Dear Church Tate calls out racism in the world the church within himself and us These letters present an anti racist mission and vision for believers to follow that helps us to speak up at the family table and call out this evil so it will not persist in future generations Tate believes that the only way to make change is by telling the truth about where we are relationally internally and spiritually How We Love Matters is an exposition of relevant Biblical truth a clarion call for all believers to examine how they see and understand each other and it is a way forward toward justice reconciliation and healing Because yes it is important that we love each other but it is even more important how we love each other I Bring the Voices of My People Chanequa Walker-Barnes,2019-10-01 Disrupting the racist and sexist biases in conversations on reconciliation Chanequa Walker Barnes offers a compelling argument that the Christian racial reconciliation movement is incapable of responding to modern day racism She demonstrates how reconciliation's roots in the evangelical male centered Promise Keepers movement has resulted in a patriarchal and largely symbolic effort focused upon improving relationships between men from various racial ethnic groups Walker Barnes argues that highlighting the voices of women of color is critical to developing any genuine efforts toward reconciliation Drawing upon intersectionality theory and critical race studies she demonstrates how living at the intersection of racism and sexism exposes women of color to unique experiences of gendered racism that are not about relationships but rather are about systems of power and inequity Refuting the idea that race and racism are one size fits all I Bring the Voices of My People highlights the particular work that White Americans must do to repent of racism and to work toward racial justice and offers a constructive view of reconciliation that prioritizes eliminating racial injustice and healing the damage that it has done to African Americans and other people of color Weep with Me Mark Vroegop,2020-06-19 Today racial wounds from three hundred years of slavery and a history of Jim Crow laws continue to impact the church in America Martin Luther King Jr captured this reality when he said The most segregated hour of Christian America is eleven o'clock on Sunday Equipped with the gospel the evangelical church should be the catalyst for reconciliation yet it continues to cultivate immense pain and division Weep with Me by Mark Vroegop is a timely resource that presents lament as a bridge to racial reconciliation in the world today In the Bible lament is a prayer that leads to trust which can be a starting point for the church to weep with those who weep Rom 12 15 As Vroegop writes Reconciliation in the church starts with tears and ends in trust More Than Equals Spencer Perkins,Chris Rice,2021-06-08 Telling the stories of Spencer Perkins and Chris Rice as they served together in an intentionally multiracial ministry this landmark book offers an example of how racial reconciliation is possible and also critical to Christian discipleship With biblical grounding hopeful realism and practical detail this new edition is now available as part of the IVP Signature Collection How to Heal Our Racial Divide Derwin L.
