African Sexualities Sylvia Tamale, 2011-06-23 A groundbreaking book accessible but scholarly by African activists It uses research life stories and artistic expression including essays case studies poetry news clips songs fiction memoirs letters interviews short film scripts and photographs to examine dominant and deviant sexualities and investigate the intersections between sex power masculinities and femininities It also opens a space particularly for young people to think about African sexualities in different ways Burning Center, Porous Borders Eleazar S. Fernandez, 2011-10-17 Burning Center Porous Borders articulates what the church is and is called to be about in the world a world now globalized to the point that the local is lived globally and the global is lived locally The church must respond creatively and prophetically to the challenges economic disparity war and terrorism diaspora ecological threat health crisis religious diversity and so on posed by our highly globalized world It can do so only if the church's spiritual center burns mightily Conversely it can burn mightily in the spirit of Christ only if its borders are porous and allows the fresh air spirit of change to blow in and out While there is much rhetoric about change the most common response to change is to continue doing business as usual This is particularly the case in the face of perceived global threats In spite of the hoopla and euphoria of the global village walls of division and exclusion are rising hearts are constricting and moral imagination shrinking In response to this context Burning Center Porous Borders proposes alternative ways or images of being a church burning center and porous borders wall buster and bridge builder translocal glocal mending healer radical hospitality community of the earth spirit household of life abundant dialogians of life and community of hope In Burning Center Porous Borders congregational vitality and progressive praxis kiss and embrace Dharma Deepika, 2006 Journal of the Society of Christian Ethics, 2007 The Politics of AIDS in Africa Amy Stephenson Patterson, 2006 The author claims the disease has generally been considered too private biological behavioral and cultural to attract much attention from political scientists and she sets out to change that She systematically analyzes how the state democratic transitions civil society and donors influence AIDS policy making Her conclusion is that uncertainty and unevenness in these four aspects has caused the AIDS fight to be insufficiently institutionalized into African politics AIDS, Ancestors, and Salvation Peter Knox, 2008 MultiCultural Review, 2006 Christian Ethics Robert L. Stivers, 2005 The case method approach effective in disciplines from business to law forms the backbone of this classroom proven work Designed specifically for undergraduate courses this latest revision includes six topical new cases on issues such as gene therapy national security and the death penalty The remaining cases have all been updated to keep the book contemporary with real life issues for productive discussion and fruitful learning Book jacket The Bible and the Hermeneutics of Liberation Alejandro F. Botta, Pablo R. Andiñach, 2009 The same Bible that historically has been invoked to support exploitation is also a source of inspiration for those fighting oppression and injustice This collection of essays highlights the different receptions that liberationist hermeneutics has found in a number of contemporary contexts The authors originating from various countries and continents and nurtured by diverse theological insights provide regional overviews of liberating struggles and liberation hermeneutics or engage the biblical text from various perspectives including mujerista and feminist Afrocentric readings This is an enriching panorama of ideas and readings all centered on the Bible as a key to liberation The contributors are Pablo R. Andiñach Alejandro F. Botta Gerald O.
