Strong,2015-08-05 Excerpt from All the Year Round A Nature Reader It is not the purpose of the author of this series to offer or even suggest any rules for its use If anything is established in education it is the fact that aside from certain underlying principles and general directions each teacher must be a rule unto herself The methods which the author and her colleagues have found successful might be entirely out of harmony with an equally good system in some other city It is to be presumed however that if this series of nature stories should be so fortunate as to be received with favor by the educational public it will occasionally find its way into the hands of some teachers who are not familiar with nature work as developed in large cities and well organized school systems To these it may be interesting and helpful to know just how it has been done in the schools out of which these stories grew and in which they have been used Indeed by way of comparison and suggestion it may also be of assistance to those who have passed through the experimental stage and have wrought out a system of their own About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Strong,2016-06-22 Excerpt from All the Year Round Vol 1 A Nature Reader But the brave little girls did not give up though they often had to sit down to rest They watched the fish in the brook and the Squirrels and the birds They wished that there were owers to pick on the bare sides of the hill After a while it grew very dark but then the kind moon came out to Show them the way At last they reached the top of the hill and there at the gate stood the little old lady looking more cross than ever The little girls were very much frightened and stayed Close together Finally one of them said Please we thought you could tell us something to do to make every one happy But we want always to stay together and we are very tired Then the people say that the cross old lady was seen to smile in the moonlight as She opened the gate for the Children The two little girls were never seen again at the foot of the hill But the next morning all over the hillside the people saw growing beauti ful waving golden rod and purple asters And I have heard it said that these two bright owers which always grow together could tell the secret if they would of what became of the two little girls on that moonlight summer night About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works All the Year Round M.
