Making the Library

Accessible for All Jane Vincent,2024-03-12 Libraries hoping to make their services and programs fully accessible will want to check out this useful and thoughtful guide. Highly recommended Library Journal Libraries have an ethical and usually a legal obligation to make their services accessible to disabled patrons and employees. Making the Library Accessible for All is a single source guide that librarians can refer to when planning remediating or evaluating accessibility. With a unique holistic approach it emphasizes the perception of people with disabilities as partners in meeting a common goal rather than as a population to be served. Topics addressed and updated in this second edition include Multiple interviews with librarians and other experts in the field about proven accessibility strategies for libraries personal experiences and cutting edge innovations. Innovations in providing assistive digital technology many of which are free or built into common programs. An overview of changes coming to accessibility guidelines for digital content Up to date information on legislation that may affect some or all libraries. An evaluation of how the COVID pandemic has changed both library services and patron needs
