Metaphor in Communication, Science and Education Francesca Ervas, Elisabetta Gola, Maria Grazia Rossi, 2017-08-07 This collection of papers presents some recent trends in metaphor studies that propose new directions of research on the embodied cognition perspective The overall volume in particular shows how the embodied cognition still remains a relevant approach in a multidisciplinary research on the communicative side of metaphors by focusing on both comprehension processes in science as well as learning processes in education

Handbook of Cognitive Linguistics and Second Language Acquisition Peter Robinson, Nick C. Ellis, 2008-03-29 This cutting edge volume describes the implications of Cognitive Linguistics for the study of second language acquisition SLA The first two sections identify theoretical and empirical strands of Cognitive Linguistics presenting them as a coherent whole The third section discusses the relevance of Cognitive Linguistics to SLA and defines a research agenda linking these fields with implications for language instruction Its comprehensive range and tutorial style chapters make this handbook a valuable resource for students and researchers alike

Moving Across Languages Alberto Hijazo-Gascón, 2021-08-23 The book analyzes the complex relationship between languages in the bilingual mind with a focus on motion event typology and the acquisition of Spanish as a second language L2 The author starts out by examining L1 patterns which are transferred to less complex L2 systems The data discussed was elicited by German learners of Spanish A similar transfer is observed when L1 is typologically and genetically close as in the case of French and Italian learners of Spanish Furthermore the author clarifies the relevance of intra typological differences within the same linguistic family including important differences in the lexicalization patterns of Italian with respect to French and Spanish The findings contribute to our understanding of the field of motion event typology and thinking for speaking The book demonstrates that conceptual transfer is present in different aspects of the motion lexicalization domain Interestingly there are some challenging aspects both for speakers whose first language is typologically different and for those whose language is typologically close The book offers suggestions on how these challenges in the restructuring of meaning in L2 can be addressed in language teaching Specifically pedagogical translation and mediation present promising pathways to the strengthening of semantic competences in the L2
