Breathing Cities The Architecture Of Movement

Bryan Turner, Robert Holton

Breathing Cities The Architecture Of Movement:

Breathing Cities Nick Barley, 2000 Every morning the world's major cities see the influx of millions of people and every evening the same cities see an exodus This book examines the impact of movement in the city describing urban environments not in terms of static structures such as buildings and roads but in terms of the movement of people cars ideas and money It takes a visual approach to the topic in a series of specially commissioned projects photographers Martyn Rose and Takashi Homma and artists Langlands Bell and Nathan Coley explore the extraordinary breathing phenomenon Architectural scholars such as Mark Cousins and the architecture practice Foreign Office and philosopher Simon Glendinning debate the possibilities which emerge In collaboration with August London The Routledge International Handbook of Globalization Studies Bryan Turner, Robert Holton, 2015-12-22 The second edition of the Routledge International Handbook of Globalization Studies offers students clear and informed chapters on the history of globalization and key theories that have considered the causes and consequences of the globalization process There are substantive sections looking at demographic economic technological social and cultural changes in globalization The handbook examines many negative aspects new wars slavery illegal migration pollution and inequality but concludes with an examination of responses to these problems through human rights organizations international labour law and the growth of cosmopolitanism There is a strong emphasis on interdisciplinary approaches with essays covering sociology demography economics politics anthropology and history The second edition has been completely revised and features important new thinking on themes such as Islamophobia and the globalization of religious conflict shifts in global energy production such as fracking global inequalities fiscal transformations of the state and problems of taxation globalization and higher education and an analysis of the general sense of catastrophe that surrounds contemporary understandings of the consequences of a global world Integral Urbanism Nan Ellin, 2013-10-18 Integral Urbanism is an ambitious and forward looking theory of urbanism that offers a new model of urban life Nan Ellin's model stands as an antidote to the pervasive problems engendered by modern and postmodern urban planning and architecture sprawl anomie a pervasive culture and architecture of fear in cities and a disregard for environmental issues Instead of the reactive and escapist tendencies characterizing so much contemporary urban development Ellin champions an integral approach that reverses the fragmentation of our landscapes and lives through proactive design solutions World Architecture, 2000 Performance and the Contemporary City Nicolas Whybrow, 2020-05-15 Cities with their rising populations and complex configurations have become key symbols of a fast changing modernity This timely collection gathers together various urban writings from a range of relevant disciplines including architecture geography sociology visual art ethnography and psychoanalysis Its focus however is performance Underscoring the importance of the field it shows how performance functions as a dynamic interdisciplinary mechanism which is central not only to understanding the multiplicity of urban living but also to the way the identities of cities are shaped Gathering together key writings on the city and performance by authors ranging from Walter Benjamin to Tim Etchells to Carl Lavery the reader can be navigated in any number of ways Supported by extensive introductory material it will be essential and evocative reading for anyone interested in making connections between performance and urban life

The Sustainable City IV C. A. Brebbia, Enzo Tiezzi, 2006 Urban areas produce a series of environmental problems arising from the consumption of natural resources and the consequent generation of waste and pollution These problems contribute to the development of social and economic imbalances All these problems which continue to grow in our society require new solutions This book addresses the many inter related aspects of the urban environment from transport and mobility to social exclusion and crime prevention Publishing papers from the Fourth International Conference on Urban Regeneration and Sustainability the volume includes topics such as Strategy and Development Planning Development and Management Environmental Management Planning Issues Socio economic Issues The community and the City Cultural Heritage Architectural Issues Traffic and Transportation Land Use and Management Public Safety Conservation of Resources Sustainable Transportation and Transport Integration Depleted Ecological Resources Environmental Pollution Energy Resources Systems The Cybercities Reader Stephen Graham, 2004 Providing the most comprehensive international and interdisciplinary analysis yet of the relationships between cities urban life and new technologies this informative book incorporates detailed discussions of cybercity history theory economic processes mobilities physical forms social and cultural worlds digital divides public domains strategies politics and futures The book includes coverage of post modern technoculture virtual reality and the body global city economies urban surveillance e commerce teleworking community informatics digital architecture urban technology strategies and the role of cities and new technologies in the war on terrorism The first interdisciplinary book to address the complex interrelationships between the use and application of electronic technologies and practices and processes of contemporary metropolitan life this key text adopts a uniquely international perspective Detailed case studies include virtual cities in Amsterdam Internet cabins in Lima back offices in Jamaica and smart highways in Melbourne An excellent teaching aid with part section and individual extract introductions this outstanding book provides an up to date snapshot of how policies for cities and cyberspaces are being combined across the world Architecture as Medium Jung Mi Won, 2008 The Architects' Journal, 2000 Environment & Planning, 2012 Blueprint, 2000 Contemporary Visual Arts, 2000 The Supermodern Wardrobe Andrew Bolton, 2002 This cutting edge addition to V A Publications paperback fashion list examines new ideas in dress for the urban environment and how fashion designers are responding to the ever increasing demands of contemporary city life The book focuses on the work of innovative designers whose approach to supermodern clothing fuses high style and 21st century technology They have all appropriated ideas and materials which were previously on the margins of fashion such as those used in high performance sportswear and riot gear to address the challenges of the urban environment Their clothes are functional and adapted to the public spaces of the supermodern world supermarkets airports motorways and the street They are designed to anticipate all contingencies offering protection and security in an increasingly alien urban environment Sections cover concepts such as multiple functionality mobility shelter protection identity and super invisibility featuring the work of designers such as CP Company who have produced a jacket with a built in anti smog mask Vexed Generation whose parkas disguise the identity of the wearer and act as urban armour Mandarina Duck who have devised a camouflage system for the street and Levi's who have produced a range of jackets equipped with fully integrated communications systems With its stylish page design and lively commentary this is a book that will appeal to all lovers of fashion radical design and innovation

Temporal Inten(c)ity Aaron Hunter Brumo, 2005 Architectural Publications Index, 2003 Program Box in the City Cindy Moon, 2008 Contemporary Art in Print Charles Booth-Clibborn, Jeremy Lewison, 2001-04 Arguably the most significant book on printmaking published in the last five years showcasing rare works on paper created for the Paragon Press by 25 leading artists including the Chapman brothers Peter Doig Damien Hirst and Gary Hume American Book Publishing Record, 2000-07 An Alternative Supermarket Heather Louise Moore, 2004 Environment and Planning, 2003 International interdisciplinary journal discussing the relations between Society and Space Space is broadly conceived from landscapes of the body to global geographies from cyberspace to old growth forests as metaphorical and material as theoretical construct and empirical fact Covers both practical politics and the abstractions of social theory
