Islāmic Counselling and Psychotherapy G. Hussein Rassool, 2024-10-08 Islāmic Counselling and Psychotherapy An Introduction to Theory and Practice provides foundation level knowledge of and perspective on the fundamental principles and practices of counselling and psychotherapy from an Islāmic perspective This groundbreaking practical framework incorporates Islāmic spirituality religion and cultural contexts into the therapeutic process It makes the case that authentic Islamic spirituality based on submission to God forms the cornerstone of good mental health The book's foundation focuses on the therapist's role and ethical considerations specific to Islamic psychotherapy It explores the integration of Quranic teachings and hadiths and delves into dream interpretation and the clinical applications of the Siraat Al-Islamic psychotherapy practice model This thoroughly revised new edition also highlights advances and developments in scholarship and evidence-based practices and introduces postmodern psychotherapy approaches like narrative and hope therapy This text provides a clear understanding of the nature, scope and process of Islamic psychotherapy for Islamic practitioners or clinicians working with Muslim clients

Islamic Counselling G. Hussein Rassool, 2015-07-16 Islamic counselling is a form of counselling which incorporates spirituality into the therapeutic process Until now there has been little material available on the subject with no one agreed definition of Islamic counselling and what it involves There has also been a rapidly growing population of Muslims in Western societies with a corresponding rise in need of psychological and counselling services Islamic Counselling An Introduction to theory and practice presents a basic understanding of Islamic counselling for counsellors and Islamic counsellors and provides an understanding of counselling approaches congruent with Islamic beliefs and practices from a faith-based perspective The book is designed as an introduction for counsellors its goal is to inform the reader about how the diverse roles of the Islamic counsellor fit together in a comprehensive way and to provide the guidelines that can be potentially integrated into a theoretical framework for use The book is divided into two parts Section one Context and Background and Section two Assessment Models and Intervention Strategies Islamic Counselling encompasses both current theory research and an awareness of the practice implications in delivering appropriate and effective counselling interventions with Muslim clients It will be essential reading for both professionals and students alike
