Teaching Writing Mary Frances Claggett, 2005 This new resource for writing teachers helps students set purpose and find form for their writing In today s educational climate it is more important than ever that we prepare our students to be effective and competent writers who can write for a variety of purposes How can we teach our students the skills they need to be successful while also fostering an appreciation for the process craft and art of writing Drawing from sound theory and research as well as on many years of experience in the English classroom Fran Claggett and colleagues Joan Brown Nancy Patterson and Louann Reid have created a writing teacher's resource to help both new and experienced teachers sort through the often complex issues in the teaching of writing. With innovative teacher-tested strategies for creating a classroom in which students thrive as writers, Teaching Writing Craft: Art Genre is a must-have addition to every writing teacher's library. In this volume you'll discover research-based discussions on key issues, classroom-ready lessons for teaching genre, methods for incorporating poetry into the writing program, rationale and lessons for using modeling to teach writing ideas for integrating technology in the English classroom, strategies for teaching grammar in contexts for writing, examples of student work that illustrate teaching concepts, sample rubrics for assessment and student self-assessment, and an extensive bibliography of resources.

Interviewing Strategies for Helpers Louise Sherilyn Cormier, William Henry Cormier, 1998. Filled with examples, case studies, and exercises, this practical resource is designed to help readers become familiar with the full range of interviewing, assessment, and intervention skills essential to practitioners. Reflecting many of the changes taking place in the training and delivery of counselling and psychological services in the 90s, this revision of the Cormiers' best seller now includes increased emphasis on multicultural issues and diversity, coverage of the transition to managed mental health care through various HMOs, increased coverage that reflects the trend toward holistic treatment and health care services, a chapter on Knowing Yourself as a Counselor that guides readers toward self-awareness, and coverage of client process and outcome evaluation skills necessary for mastering today's treatment planning guidelines.

Spelling Strategies that Work Min Hong, Patsy Stafford, 1997. PRACTICAL WAYS TO MOTIVATE STUDENTS TO BECOME SUCCESSFUL SPELLERS.

Reading and Writing in Elementary Classrooms Patricia Marr Cunningham, 2004. This K-4 text follows the style of the successful Cunningham Allington franchise. It is very practical with tons of activities and grounded on solid research. With new chapters on Fluency Assessment and a new organization, this text offers the most current insight on thinking processes on reading and writing as language and on the importance of the affective domain. Other books by these authors: Phonics They Use: Words for Reading and Writing, Third Edition, Patricia M. Cunningham, Wake Forest University, ISBN 0-321-02055-3; Classrooms That Work: They Can All Read and Write, Third Edition, Patricia M. Cunningham, Wake Forest University; Richard L. Allington: University of Florida, ISBN 0-205-35541-2; Schools That Work: Where All Children Read and Write, Second Edition, Richard L. Allington, The University of Florida; Patricia M. Cunningham, Wake Forest University, ISBN 0-8013-3246-X. Reading and Writing in Elementary School Classrooms, 4e, was well conceived and will only grow in popularity as more and more teachers seek support for the teaching of reading. The book is a great effort on the part of the authors, Professor Lee T. Person, Ed.D., Associate Dean for Education, Ottawa University. It's clear that these authors know the research, know the history of reading instruction, and know the classroom. They have a keen sense of how to help the teachers move forward in understanding and implementing good literacy practices by utilizing new insights without being iconoclastic. Professor James Rooks, Calvin College. The pedagogical elements of the text are excellent. One of the things I like best about the book is the inclusion of the appropriate activities within each chapter so that students can read about and practice the concepts first hand Professor Luther R Kirk Longwood University Author Bio David W Moore serves as a Professor of Education at Arizona State University West where his teaching centers about literacy development His publication record balances research reports professional articles book chapters and books Recent co authored books include Developing readers and writers in the content areas K 12 4th ed and Starting out A guide for teaching adolescents who struggle with reading Patricia M Cunningham is a professor at Wake Forest University in Winston Salem North Carolina In addition to university teaching she worked for ten years in public school positions that included first grade teacher fourth grade teacher remedial reading teacher curriculum coordinator and director of reading Dr Cunningham has published numerous research and applied articles She is also the author of Phonics They Use and coauthor of Schools That Work Along with Dorothy Hall she developed the Building Blocks and Four Blocks frameworks for providing balanced literacy instruction in kindergarten and primary grades James W Cunningham is Professor of Literacy Education at the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill He teaches undergraduate and graduate courses in reading and writing education He has over 85 publications in professional books and journals and has presented at many national conferences He serves on the editorial board of four literacy research journals Sharon Arthur Moore Literacy Staff Development Specialist for the Osborn School District in Phoenix Arizona assists teachers in implementing best practices in literacy She has published numerous books and articles and is a frequent presenter at national conferences She has been an elementary teacher Title I teacher and university Associate Professor
