Daddy Needs a Drink Robert Wilder, 2007-05-01 In the tradition of Dave Barry an irreverent look at fatherhood from a dad who truly loves his kids even when they're driving him nuts Robert Wilder's hilarious and boldly candid essays about the realities of parenting go down like gin and tonic on a hot summer afternoon. People A Santa Fe dad shares heartwarming comic often ludicrous tales of raising a family in this laugh out loud book perfect for anyone who enjoys the edgy humor of David Sedaris or the whimsical commentary of Dave Barry. Waxing both profound and profane on issues close to a father's heart from exploding diapers to toddler tantrums from the horrors of dressing up as Frosty the Snowman to the moments that make a father proud Robert Wilder brilliantly captures the joys and absurdities of being a parent today. With an artist wife and two kids a daughter Poppy and a son London Robert Wilder considers himself as open minded as the next man. Yet even he finds himself parentally challenged when his toddler son London careens around the house in the buff or asks the kind of outrageous embarrassing questions only a kid can ask. A high school teacher who sometimes refers to himself jokingly as Mister Mom when his wife Lala is busy in her studio Wilder shares warmly funny stories on everything from sleep deprivation to why school sponsored charities can turn otherwise sane adults into blithering and begging idiots. Whether trying to conjure up the perfect baby name Poppy came to his wife's mother in a dream or hiring a Baby Whisperer to get some much needed sleep Wilder offers priceless life lessons on discipline potty training even phallic fiddling courtesy of young London. He describes the perils of learning to live monodextrously doing everything with one hand while carrying your child around with the other and the joys of watching his daughter morph into a graceful wise unique little person right before his eyes. By turns tender irreverent and hysterically funny Daddy Needs a Drink is a hilarious and poignant tribute to his family by a man who truly loves being a father.
