Interethnic Relations Emerich K. Francis, 1976 Sociology, Race, and Ethnicity Harry H. Bash, 1979 Presenting an analysis of American assimilation theory Bash attempts to dissect the concept and what it has come to mean in the United States After tracing the natural history of the assimilation notion and later its theoretical elaboration he explores far more theoretical linkages by way of concept formation and theory construction in the area of racial and ethnic group relations

Multiculturalism in the United States John D. Buenker, Lormen A. Ratner, 2005-03-30 Interest in ethnic studies and multiculturalism has grown considerably in the years since the 1992 publication of the first edition of this work Co editors Ratner and Buenker have revised and updated the first edition of Multiculturalism in the United States to reflect the changes patterns and shifts in immigration showing how American culture affects immigrants and is affected by them Common topics that helped determine the degree and pace of acculturation for each ethnic group are addressed in each of the 17 essays providing the reader with a comparative reference tool Seven new ethnic groups are included Arabs Haitians Vietnamese Koreans Filipinos Asian Indians and Dominicans New essays on the Irish Chinese and Mexicans are provided as are revised and updated essays on the remaining groups from the first edition The contribution to American culture by people of these diverse origins reflects differences in class occupation and religion The authors explain the tensions and conflicts between American culture and the traditions of newly arrived immigrants Changes over time that both of the cultures brought to America and of the culture that received them is also discussed Essays on representative ethnic groups include African Americans American Indians Arabs Asian Indians Chinese Dominicans Filipinos Germans Haitians Irish Italians Jews Koreans Mexicans Poles Scandinavians and the Vietnamese Routledge Library Editions: The British Empire Various, 2021-03-05 The volumes in this set originally published between 1968 and 1989 draw together research by leading academics in the area of the British Empire and provides an examination of related key issues The volumes examine slavery in the British Empire problems encountered in India in the eighteenth and nineteenth century as well as the Empire at its most powerful This set will be of particular interest to students of British colonial and world history The Force of Prejudice Pierre-André Taguieff, 2001 Pierre Andr Taguieff puts forward a powerful thesis that racism has evolved from an argument about races naturalizing inequality between biologically defined groups on the basis of fear of the other to an argument about cultures naturalizing historical differences and justifying exclusion Correspondingly Taguieff shows how antiracism must adopt the strategy that fits the variety of racism it opposes Already viewed as an essential work of reference in France The Force of Prejudice is an invaluable tool for identifying and understanding both racism and its antidote in our day Social Change in the Southwest, 1350-1880 Thomas D. Hall, 1989 Theories of Ethnicity Werner Sollors, 1996-11 Werner Sollors has here brought together such intellectuals as Max Weber Carl Gustav Jung Margaret Mead Georg Simmel Erik Erikson Karl Mannheim Jean Toomer Fredrik Barth and Herbert Gans and pioneering work by a host of other sociologists anthropologists

Racial and Cultural Minorities George Eaton Simpson,J. Milton Yinger,2013-06-29 We need scarcely note that the topic of this book is the stuff of headlines Around the world political economic educational military religious and social relations of every variety have a racial or ethnic component One cannot begin to understand the history or contemporary situation of the United States the Soviet Union China Zimbabwe South Africa Great Britain Lebanon Mexico Canada indeed almost any land without careful attention to the influence of cultural and racial divisions Preparation of this new edition has brought a strong sense of deja vu with regard both to the persistence of old patterns of discrimination even if in new guises and also to the persistence of limited and constraining explanations We have also found however rich new empirical studies new theoretical perspectives and greatly expanded activity and analyses from members of minority groups Although this edition is an extensive revision with reference both to the data used and the theoretical approaches examined we have not shifted from our basically analytical perspective We strongly support efforts to reduce discrimination and prejudice but these can be successful only if we try to understand where we are and what forces are creating the existing situation We hope to reduce the tendency to use declarations and condemnations of other persons actions as substitutes for an investigation of their causes and consequences JOURNAL OF BIOSOCIAL SCIENCE D. F. ROBERTS,1979 A History of Sociological Research and Teaching at Catholic Notre Dame University, Indiana Anthony J. Blasi,Bernard F. Donahoe,2002 In a series of documented chapters this work places the emergence of sociology at Notre Dame in the context of that institution s particular history and of the changing doctrines of Roman Catholicism more generally Major Social Issues American Sociological Association,1978 Immigrants and the Formation of Community David Bibas,1998 The United States has experienced since the mid 60 s a new wave of immigration comparable in importance to the mass migration of the turn of the century It is a significant population influx which as its predecessor will shape the character of the country in the future However the more recent arrivals are very different from the huddled masses who came to this country in the early part of this century and the society receiving them has also undergone significant transformations Yet images of immigrants and the concepts used to evoke their encounter with the new environment have remained very much the same The present work attempts to provide a different approach to the study of the immigrants response to this encounter by looking at their process of transformation from immigrants to ethnics Introduction Canadian Review of Studies in Nationalism ,1983

Nationalism Louis Leo Snyder,1981-09-08 The Assimilation of Ethnic Groups James A. Crispino,1980 London Jews and British Communism, 1935-1945 Henry Felix Srebrnik,1995 In 1935 45 the Communist Party of Great Britain succeeded in gaining the mass support of East London Jewry using ethnic rather than class appeal Many of the communists goals in this period coincided with those of the Jews as a group e g opposition to the British Union of Fascists led by Mosley and to other antisemitic right wing groups support for the opening of a second front during the war which could help the

USSR liberate Eastern European Jews The Communist Party fought against antisemitism in Britain supported Jewish defense organizations in the 1930s such as the Jewish People s Council against Fascism and Anti Semitism and defended German Jewish refugees who were interned by the authorities The National Jewish Committee was established within the CPGB to deal with specifically Jewish problems The communists played on the belief of many Jews that the USSR had solved its Jewish problem After the war the popularity of the CPGB among London Jews declined mainly because of the growth of Soviet antisemitism Sociology and Social Research ,1976 Includes the section Book notes The Armenian Question, 1914-1923 Kemal Öke,1988 Investigates the nature of the Armenian Question which erupted in the Ottoman Empire during the 19th century Evaluates the phenomena from the viewpoint of international relations Concludes that the efforts of the Ottoman both towards modernization and becoming a nation proved to be useless in overcoming the counter cultural opposition in the Armenians and in integrating them into the main social structure Journal of Mennonite Studies ,1995
