Acrostic Poem For The Word Confirmation:

Old Words for a New World Walter Brueggemann, 2025-02-04 Walter Brueggemann has been so effective for so long precisely because he has consistently called upon the church to see beyond the taken for granted realities it confronts by imagining God's alternative reality to recognize that the bars of its entrapment were social constructs and could just as easily be deconstructed so we could be once again enchanted by God's good news To challenge the taken for granted reality of the church and to imagine an alternative reality Brueggemann consistently takes us back to the biblical text He moves between a description of the reality that appears in front of the church and the alternative that God is preparing for God's people that begins now and moves into God's eschatological future In so doing Brueggemann seeks to unleash the power of God's words to create a new world here and now

Psalm 119 David Noel Freedman, 1999-06-30 From the Preface The alphabetic acrostic is one of the most easily identifiable poetic forms in the Hebrew Bible Examples can be found in prophetic discourse Nahum the lament over the destruction of Jerusalem Lamentations liturgical song Psalms and wisdom literature Proverbs Yet its very obviousness has tended to deflect deeper exploration of its structure and purpose Since Mowinckel denigrated the acrostics in the Psalms as a disintegration of style too often scholars have simply noted and then ignored the form There is no a priori reason that alphabetic acrostics should be less creative expressive or complex than other psalms Thus the essays collected here investigate the acrostic format as a legitimate option for Israelite poets rather than as the refuge of uninspired epigones The fruit of over twenty years close reading of these psalms the following essays reveal the poets consummate mastery of the demanding acrostic form and deserve incorporation in future discussions of biblical poetic art

Poetry and Memory in Karaite Prayer Joachim Yeshaya, 2013-11-07 In Poetry and Memory in Karaite Prayer Joachim Yeshaya offers an edition of liturgical poems which the Karaite poet Moses Dar composed in twelfth century Egypt as introductory poems for the Torah readings on each Sabbath The Hebrew text and Judaeo Arabic heading of each poem are provided in the original order attested in the manuscript NLR Evr I 802 dated to the fifteenth century Every poem comes with a commentary section consisting of English commentary essays and bilingual Hebrew English line by line annotations In the conclusion following this edition Joachim Yeshaya demonstrates how Dar's liturgical poems are among the earliest examples of the introduction of poetry Andalusian Rabbanite poetical norms and the memory of being exiled from Jerusalem into Karaite prayer

The Divine Chase Ben Bounds, 2017-12-08 God is passionately pursuing you There is a notion in our world that we must find God that it is on our shoulders to search for a hidden God If God had not or does not reveal himself we would not even know that there is a God He is self revealing and on a mission to provoke a response in us He pursues us in three fundamental ways First the act of creation itself is an incredible act of pursuit by God He is the Creator Artist with his masterpiece in mind and we are part of the tapestry of creation Second the act of inspiring a book the Bible to codify his message demonstrates God as divine author pursuing us through his written
