Big Ideas for Little Books Shevonne Elliott, Dawn LaFleur, 2011-09 The secondary ELA classroom is an amazingly important place. It's where students transition from learning to read to reading to learn and they need a tremendous amount of guidance to make that leap. In Big Ideas for Little Books, authors Shevonne Elliott and Dawn LaFleur present opportunities to help teachers tap into secondary students' childhoods and carry the excitement of story time into more complex concepts. Detailed and engaging, these forty-five lessons use the simple text of children's books to introduce and reinforce the skills required in the secondary ELA classroom. The easy-to-follow lesson plans require little prep work and employ creative methods for helping students learn about concepts such as argumentation, characterization, dialect, imagery, irony, parody, parallelism, and more. Ideas for extension accompany every lesson and provide opportunities for teachers to differentiate instruction and meet the needs of all learners. Big Ideas for Little Books is an ideal resource for teachers who want to engage their students' imaginations while teaching literary analysis and cohesive writing skills. It offers a fresh approach to energizing students and generating excitement about learning. Writing and Reading Connections Zoi A.

Philippakos, Steve Graham, 2022-11-18 Writing skills are essential for success in the 21st-century school and workplace, but most classrooms devote far more time to reading instruction, with writing often addressed in isolation or excluded. In this insightful professional development resource, text-leading researchers discuss why and how to integrate writing and reading instruction in grades K-12 and beyond. Contributors explore how to harness writing-reading connections to support learning in such areas as phonics and spelling, vocabulary, understanding genre and text structure, and self-regulated strategy development, as well as across content areas and disciplines. Special considerations in teaching emergent bilingual students and struggling literacy learners are described. User-friendly features include guiding questions, classroom examples, and action questions that help teachers translate the research and concepts into practice. An NCTQ Exemplary Text for Reading Instruction. Reading Comprehension Activities Grade 3-4 Jennifer Cripe, 2011-06-21 Reading comprehension comes as a result of learning reading skills and strategies. The activities in this series can be used to supplement any core reading program. They are flexible enough to provide opportunities for differentiated instruction.

Picture This! Teaching Standards-Based Reading Using Picture Books, 2011 To help students transfer reading skills into the content areas, teachers use picture books to promote basic understanding when reading text in any contextual area, knowledge of literary elements that help make any text more meaningful, comprehension of story elements, and critical thinking that helps students read between and beyond the lines. How to Get Your Child to Love Reading Esmé Raji Codell, 2003-01-01 Offers advice and guidelines on how to expand a child's world through books and reading, introducing three thousand teacher-recommended book titles, craft ideas, projects, recipes, and reading club tips. Multicultural Teaching Pamela L. Tiedt, Iris M. Tiedt, 2002 Multicultural Teaching, Sixth Edition, provides activities and information designed to enable the teacher to explore the many kinds of diversity in the classroom The authors guide readers to examine their own diversity first in order to better understand how diversity affects everyone This text presents model lesson plans fully developed thematic units and a variety of instructional strategies as well as a wealth of resources that support multicultural teaching It examines difficult issues and problems within multicultural education to encourage reflections and discussion It explains the basic content of multicultural education and also describes methods for carrying out the best education for all students It deals with such important topics as language diversity appropriate terminology prejudice and stereotyped thinking and emphasizes the development of esteem empathy and equity in the classroom
