popular cultural export Japanese filmmaker director and anime artist Hayao Miyazaki has been described as the godfather of animation with a cultural output and level of influence to rival Walt Disney's. In 1985 he co-founded Studio Ghibli, Japan's most successful animation studio and went on to direct the vast majority of its most notable productions. His many films include My Neighbour Totoro (1988), Spirited Away (2001), Howl's Moving Castle (2004) and Ponyo (2008), each of which have been enormous cult hits both inside and outside of Japan. Spirited Away is still the highest grossing film in Japanese cinema history but also received an Academy Award for Best Animated Feature. Miyazaki's worlds are painstakingly produced and deeply stylistically inventive. Only he could have created Totoro, a giant furry spirit inspired by a raccoon dog and a cat, and turn him into a global phenomenon. His influences encompass both Japanese and broader Western influences. The Worlds of Miyazaki will bring these influences together to show how Miyazaki creates his magical worlds and in doing so has become one of modern cinema's most influential stylists.

He logically turned to Gardner Fox, the writer of the Justice Society of America, to realize these plans.
