School Parents Meeting Invitation Letter

January 30, 2050

[Recipient's Name]

[Recipient's Address]

Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. On behalf of [YOUR SCHOOL NAME], I would like to formally invite you to our upcoming School Parents Meeting. This meeting has been scheduled to discuss various aspects of our students' progress, potential enhancements to our curriculum, and to foster the bond between parents and the school.

Your presence is of utmost importance as it will provide an opportunity for us to update you on your child's academic performance, share the school's blueprint for the coming academic year, and discuss strategies to collaboratively address any challenges that may lie ahead.

The meeting is scheduled to take place on [DATE] at [TIME] in the school auditorium. We anticipate the meeting will last for approximately two hours, and refreshments will be provided.

Ultimately, our goal is to ensure that every child excels in their respective field and to make [YOUR SCHOOL NAME] a wonderful place of learning. We appreciate your consistent support and look forward to your attendance at the School Parents Meeting. Please kindly confirm your attendance by [DATE] by contacting the school office.

Thank you for your ongoing commitment to your child's education. We value your partnership and are grateful to have you as part of the [YOUR SCHOOL NAME] community.

Yours sincerely,

Student-Led Conferencing Using Showcase Portfolios Barbara P. Benson, Susan P.

Barnett, 2005-02-15 Help your students demonstrate what they know and why they have learned it. The increasing focus on standards and accountability has brought a new breed of challenges educators today must not only engage students but also their parents they must not only provide authentic assessments but also communicate them in meaningful ways. With the help of this updated edition of a bestseller educators can achieve this and more as they turn student work into insightful showcase portfolios and transform the oft dreaded parent conferences into powerful learning and assessment opportunities. The user friendly and time tested strategies outlined in the manual have been successfully implemented in classrooms throughout North America and real life examples are provided to illustrate how the approach can be applied at any grade level and for any subject matter. Newly added features to this comprehensive text include Strategies for beginning the portfolio process with students Current research findings that support student led conferencing Easy to use timelines and sample schedules Blackline masters that cut down on teacher prep time The latest information on electronic portfolios In today's standards based and accountability driven classroom teachers are increasingly seeking ways to demonstrate that their students know what they are learning and are aware of why they are learning it This groundbreaking guide shows how the combination of portfolios and student led conferences can increase student understanding. Using this technique students will be able to take charge of their learning and are able to clearly communicate the goals of their education with fellow students administrators and parents

New Teachers Handbook Ellen Meyers, 1988 This practical guide for new teachers is written by teachers and offers strategies for the early years of teaching that cover classroom practice and professional development. Seven chapters address teaching practice and cover the following topics: getting to know students at the beginning of the year, strategic planning for the whole year following the curriculum, classroom management types and sources of resources, working in partnership with parents and successfully managing the homestretch March to June. Short essays on professional development and personal concerns alternate with these chapters. These are: Curing Occupational Hazards From the Inside Out, Timothy Gangwer; Curing Occupational Hazards From the Outside In, Paula Hartman; On Becoming a Professional, David Georgi; Professionalism You Get What You Pay For, Betty Myers; and A Dialogue on Professionalism, Vincent Bono and Eileen G. Krieg. The guide includes a list of contributing teachers, a list of IMPACT II information centers around the nation and an index.
