Andre Green at the Squiggle Foundation Jan Abram, 2018-05-08 Despite being one of the foremost psychoanalysts working today much of Andre Green's work has until recently been unavailable in English. This work aims to rectify this by collecting together five lectures given to the Squiggle Foundation in London. This accessible and clearly written book provides a unique introduction to Green's work and its relation to the work of D W Winnicott as promoted by the Squiggle Foundation itself. The Squiggle Foundation has as its goal to study and cultivate the tradition of D W Winnicott and has achieved an international reputation in doing so. Dr Green's lectures touch particularly on the links between his thought and that of Winnicott as can be seen from the lecture titles Experience and Thinking in Analytic Practice Objects and Subject On Thirdness The Posthumous Winnicott On Human Nature and The Intuition of the Negative Playing and Reality The Absent Father Effect on Daughters Susan E. Schwartz, 2020-11-29 Winner of the International Association for Jungian Studies IAJS Book Award for Best Clinical Book 2021. The Absent Father Effect on Daughters investigates the impact of absent physically or emotionally and inadequate fathers on the lives and psyches of their daughters through the perspective of Jungian analytical psychology. This book tells the stories of daughters who describe the insecurity of self the splintering and disintegration of the personality and the silencing of voice. Issues of fathers and daughters reach to the intra psychic depths and archetypal roots to issues of self and culture both personal and collective. Susan E Schwartz illustrates the maladies and disappointments of daughters who lack a father figure and incorporates clinical examples describing how daughters can break out of idealizations betrayals abandonments and losses to move towards repair and renewal. The book takes an interdisciplinary approach expanding and elucidating Jungian concepts through dreams personal stories fairy tales and the poetry of Sylvia Plath along with psychoanalytic theory including Andre Green's dead father effect and Julia Kristeva's theories on women and the body as abject. Examining daughters both personally and collectively affected by the lack of a father. The Absent Father Effect on Daughters is highly relevant for those wanting to understand the complex dynamics of daughters and fathers to become their authentic selves. It will be essential reading for anyone seeking understanding analytical and depth psychologists other therapy professionals academics and students with Jungian and post Jungian interests. The Dead Mother Gregorio Kohon, 1999 This collection of essays explore the concept of the dead mother which refers to the process of mourning that takes place in the child following maternal depression when the child experiences the loss of love. The Greening of Psychoanalysis Gregorio Kohon, Rosine Jozef Perelberg, 2018-03-26 The influence of Andre Green on psychoanalysis has been immeasurable his theoretical clinical and cultural contributions have identified him as one of the most important psychoanalytic thinkers of our times. Reed,Howard B. Levine,2018-08-06 Andr Green was a leading voice in French psychoanalysis a brilliant thinker and an innovative contributor to our field His writings sit at the crossroads of contemporary psychoanalysis where the challenges posed and the opportunities presented by the work of Lacan Klein Winnicott and Bion meet the still generative insights of Freud many of which Green reminded us have yet to be fully developed or appreciated Green s expansion of Freud s theory of psychic representation and his own formulation of the work of the negative exemplify his idea of clinical thinking and herald what many believe is a new paradigm for psychoanalysis This volume of essays written by an international group of scholars in response to and appreciation of Green s contributions continues to explore the tension between presence and absence loss and remainder fort and da and the creative dialectical arc that exists between these pairs in psychic development and the analytic process It aims to expand the reach of our theory and practice to patients whose difficulties lie at the limits of analyzability beyond the spectrum of neurotic disturbances for which classical psychoanalysis was originally intended and to place the reader at the frontiers of contemporary clinical thinking and analytic technique French Psychoanalysis Revisited

The Death Drive Jeffrey R. Di Leo,Paul Allen Miller,2025-12-11 The first collection to provide an overview of the well known psychoanalytic theory of the death drive in literary and cultural theory this book features contributions from a range of prominent scholars working in the area of literature and psychanalysis Jet,1996-03-18 The weekly source of African American political and entertainment news     Diachrony in Psychoanalysis André Green, 2003 The question of diachrony has been an outgoing preoccupation of André Green throughout his psychoanalytic career. It was at the center of the debates during the era of structuralism and opened up a range of issues for psychoanalysis. These included the question of primal experience, phantasies and key signifiers. Lacan and repetition, discovered belatedly by Freud but destined to play a major role. Recollection, a central theme in the early days of psychoanalysis, is now seen in the context of its relation to repetition, compulsion. The memories to be rediscovered during treatment are less important than the signs of temporality involved. The illusion of completely lifting infantile amnesia has given way to constructions in analysis. Historical truth, which is based on the beliefs organizing the psyche, is contrasted with material truth stripped of any embellishment.     Speech and System Peter Bornedal, 1997 In this investigation, creative writing and philosophy are shown to be specific types of language games, distinct from speech as used in communicative interaction between individuals. The author deals with thinking, speech and systems respectively. I. Thinking is understood as a soliloquy preceding any kind of creative activity and any kind of writing. The author analyses thinking as a subject's listening to its own voice with a split between I and me, close to Derrida's notion of difference as a condition for the production of meaning. II. Analyzing with reference to Benveniste, Austin and Searle, what speech is, the author deduces the so-called pragmatic subject, in contrast to the first section's reflective. In its elementary speech act, the pragmatic subject does constitute itself in rudimentary ways. III. In dealing with the product of reflective activity, the author finds the so-called textual inconstancy or logical aporias inherent in any logical or pseudo logical system, to be in line with Gödel's incompleteness theorems, and he rejects the tendency to use deconstruction to understand these aporias, as is usual in Western metaphysics. The author's philosophical position is closest to that of Paul Ricoeur and Jacques Derrida, but on crucial issues he advances his own ideas on the relationship between speech and writing, also establishing a criticism of metaphysics that may be more radical than what has previously been developed.
