Eavan Boland Jody Allen Randolph, 2013-11-26 In this powerful and authoritative study Jody Allen Randolph provides the fullest account yet of the work of a major figure in twentieth century Irish literature as well as in contemporary women's writing Eavan Boland's achievement in changing the map of Irish poetry is tracked and analyzed from her first poems to the present The book traces the evolution of that achievement guiding the reader through Boland's early

attachment to Yeats her growing unease with the absence of women's writing her encounter with pioneering American poets like Sylvia Plath Elizabeth Bishop and Adrienne Rich and her eventual challenging amendments in poetry and prose to Ireland's poetic tradition Using research from private papers the book also traces a time of upheaval and change in Ireland exploring Boland's connection to Mary Robinson in a chapter that details the nexus of a woman president and a woman poet in a country that was resistant to both Finally this book invites the reader to share a compelling perspective on the growth of a poet described by one critic as Ireland's first great woman poet

Citizen Poet Eavan Boland, 2024-09-03 A landmark volume of essays from Ireland's leading feminist poet New York Times Book Review that celebrates a transformative vision of womanhood nation and poetry Eavan Boland was a trailblazing poet critic teacher and essayist Carving a path for the next generation she broke open the male dominated canon of Irish literature and mapped her poetic journey through the contours of life as a mother daughter and citizen This generous and wise volume contains essays selected from Object Lessons 1995 and A Journey with Two Maps 2011 later writings addressing the changing nature of poetry and a draft of a reflective memoir called Daughter on which Boland was working at the time of her death A compelling blend of memoir analysis and argument Citizen Poet traces the arc of Boland s pioneering view of nationhood through the lens of womanhood
