Ability, Disability Katie Ann Burke, 2015 The Aging-Disability Nexus Katie Aubrecht, Christine Kelly, Carla Rice, 2020-06-01 As the global population ages disability demographics are shifting Societal transformation and global health inequities have changed who is likely to reach old age who is likely to live with disability and the relationship between aging and disability in various socio cultural and geopolitical contexts The Aging Disability Nexus breaks new ground by bringing gerontology and disability studies into dialogue with each other through a variety of empirical conceptual and pedagogical approaches Contributors explore the tensions that shape the way disability and aging are understood experienced and responded to at both individual and systemic levels while avoiding the common tendency to conflate these overlapping elements and map them onto a normative faulty notion of the human life trajectory This perceptive work analyzes the distinction between aging with a disability and aging into disability and reveals how multiple identities socio economic forces culture and community give form to our experiences Gifts, Romance, and Consumer Culture Yuko Minowa, Russell W. Belk, 2018-09-05 How do people communicate their romantic feelings Gift giving is one way Giving and receiving of gifts is a characteristic of intimate relationships Gifts are a message a form of communication with a tangible material object about love affection or concern for the recipient The romantic gift evokes a multitude of intertwined meanings passion intimacy affection persuasion care celebration altruism and nostalgia They can also connote the negative images of obligation and reciprocity Romantic gift giving may be practiced at rituals during rites of passage or for casual occasions to affirm the continued importance of the romantic relationship We may even romanticize the giving of gifts to the self to nonhuman companions and to others we do not know personally If loving and giving are a practice then romantic gift giving is a practice of loving with intimate or would be intimate others This book addresses gift giving among consumers attempting to express and construct romantic love It lies at the intersection of consumption markets and culture In societies shaped by the globalizing neo liberal economic order increasing wealth disparity and a partially digitized social environment that they help to co construct it may be time to rethink romantic love Gift giving is a key arena to do so as gifts make love tangible and act as carriers of meaning as well as cultural symbols In gift giving the meanings of romance are renewed renegotiated and reconstructed Gifts Romance And Consumer Culture demonstrates a wide variety of scholarly work bearing on romantic gift giving using an interpretive consumer research perspective The book introduces critical studies by scholars in this unfolding and new interdisciplinary field Resources in Education ,1980 DAV ,1977 Working Mother ,2001-10 The magazine that helps career moms balance their personal and professional lives Congressional Record United States.
