Jeffrey S. Dill, 2013-07-18 As the world seemingly gets smaller and smaller schools around the globe are focusing their attention on expanding the consciousness and competencies of their students to prepare them for the conditions of globalization Global citizenship education is rapidly growing in popularity because it captures the longings of so many to help make a world of prosperity universal benevolence and human rights in the midst of globalization's varied processes of change This book offers an empirical account from the perspective of teachers and classrooms based on a qualitative study of ten secondary schools in the United States and Asia that explicitly focus on making global citizens Global citizenship in these schools has two main elements both global competencies economic skills and global consciousness ethical orientations that proponents hope will bring global prosperity and peace However many of the moral assumptions of global citizenship education are more complex and contradict these goals and are just as likely to have the unintended consequence of reinforcing a more particular Western individualism While not arguing against global citizenship education per se the book argues that in its current forms it has significant limits that proponents have not yet acknowledged which may very well undermine it in the long run Western Civilization and the Academy Bradley C. S. Watson, 2015-09-03 This volume brings together leading thinkers who offer reflections on the place of Western civilization in the academy at a time when there is indifference or even antipathy toward the study of the West at most institutions of higher learning Alternative narratives including multiculturalism diversity and sustainability have come to the fore in the stead of Western civilization The present volume is designed to explore the roots extent and long term consequences of this educational climate How and why did undergraduate education turn its back on what was once an important component of its mission To what extent has such change affected the experience of undergraduates and the ability of colleges to educate citizens of a constitutional republic What are the likely individual and social outcomes of such a shift in educational priorities The volume's theme is and will continue to be the subject of national scholarly and media attention Corporate Global Citizenship Noel M. Tichy, Andrew R. McGill, Lynda St. Clair, 1997 Thoroughly researched this book is a cutting edge study of how the world's largest multinational corporations such as American Express Merck Company and General Electric create and implement programs that positively influence the communities in which they operate In addition the authors offer a penetrating look at the future prospects for global corporate citizenship initiative 9/11 and the Academy Mark Finney, Matthew Shannon, 2019-07-31 This book explores the impact of September 11 2001 upon interdisciplinary scholarship and pedagogy in the liberal arts Since the day that changed everything many forces have transformed institutions of higher education in the United States and around the world The editors and contributors consider the extent to which the influence of 9/11 was direct or part of wider structural changes within academia and the chapters represent a wide range of interdisciplinary perspectives on how the production and dissemination of knowledge has changed since 2001 Some authors demonstrate that new forms of inquiry exploration and evidence have been created much of it focused on the causes consequences and meanings of the terror attacks Others find that scholars sought to understand 9 11 by applying old theoretical and empirical insights and reviving lines of questioning that have become relevant The contributors also examine the impact of 9 11 on higher education administration and liberal arts pedagogies Among the many collective findings is that scholars in the humanities and critical social sciences have been most attentive to the place of 9 11 in society and academic culture This eclectic collection will appeal to students and scholars interested in the place of the liberal arts in the twenty first century world The Oxford Handbook of Global Studies Mark Juergensmeyer, Saskia Sassen, Manfred B. Steger (†d), 2019 Since the end of the Cold War globalization has been reshaping the modern world and an array of new scholarship has risen to make sense of it in its various transnational manifestations including economic social cultural ideological technological environmental and in new communications The chapters discuss various aspects in the field through a broad range of approaches This handbook focuses on global studies more than on the phenomenon of globalization itself although the various aspects of globalization are central to understanding how the field is currently being shaped Proceedings of the 2010 Academy of Marketing Science (AMS) Annual Conference Dawn R. Deeter-Schmelz, 2014-10-23 Founded in 1971 the Academy of Marketing Science is an international organization dedicated to promoting timely explorations of phenomena related to the science of marketing in theory research and practice Among its services to members and the community at large the Academy offers conferences congresses and symposia that attract delegates from around the world Presentations from these events are published in this Proceedings series which offers a comprehensive archive of volumes reflecting the evolution of the field Volumes deliver cutting edge research and insights complimenting the Academy s flagship journals the Journal of the Academy of Marketing Science JAMS and AMS Review Volumes are edited by leading scholars and practitioners across a wide range of subject areas in marketing science This volume includes the full proceedings from the 2010 Academy of Marketing Science AMS Annual Conference held in Portland Oregon Illinois Charter School Biennial Report Illinois State Board of Education (1973- ), 2009 Global Citizenship Education William Gaudelli, 2016-03-22 Global Citizenship Education addresses the intersection of globalization education and programmatic efforts to prepare young people to live in a more interdependent complex and fragile world The book explores topics such as sustainability education cultural diversity and human rights education offering critical insights into how these facets of GCE are interpreted around the world The book also strives to give voice to student populations within historically marginalized communities rather than focusing solely on the role of GCE in elite schools Gaudelli blends theory and practice to provide both an overview of GCE as well as examining current efforts to develop more globally conscious classrooms Blending empirical research and practical illustrations this important volume encourages educators to take seriously their own call to prepare young people to engage global challenges with a sense of urgency and helps chart a new direction for global learning that is increasingly expansive dialogic and inclusive

Hitotsubashi Journal of Social Studies, 1999 Fostering Global Citizenship in an Elementary Classroom Cori Brooks, 2013-05-26 Being a citizen of the world is more important now than ever before We are all connected and we have a common responsibility to care for our world and the people living in it We all need to be aware of the world be responsible for our own actions understand that people around the world have different cultures and react to things differently We also need to care for the world's environment participate and help the community around us and around the world and help the world be a better place by taking action My action research engaged seventeen 2nd and 3rd grade students from The Learning Choice Academy in San Diego California in fostering global citizenship by participating in real world multicultural learning experiences that fostered the above characteristics My students wrote to pen pals in Guinea Africa participated in a beach clean up and raised money to purchase water filters for families in need among other actions during my research Through reflection journals and class discussions I found that young students have what it takes to become global citizens all we as teachers need to do is foster it It is never too soon to begin the journey of becoming the global citizens so needed in today's world

Global Citizenship Education Eva Aboagye, S. Nombuso Dlamini, 2021-03-01 The idea of citizenship and conceptions of what it means to be a good citizen have evolved over time On the one hand good citizenship entails the ability to live with others in diverse societies and to promote a common set of values of acceptance human rights and democracy On the other hand in order to compete in the global economy nations require a more innovative autonomous and reflective workforce meaning good citizens are also those who successfully participate in the economic development of themselves and their country These competing conceptions of good citizenship can result in people's participation in activities such as profit driven labor exploitation that contradict human rights and democratic tenants Thus global citizenship education is fundamental to teaching learning and redressing sociopolitical economic and environmental exploitation around the world Detailing the historical development of this field of study to achieve recognition Global Citizenship Education Challenges and Successes provides a critical discourse on global citizenship education GCE Authors in this collection discuss the underpinnings of global citizenship education via contemporary theories and methodologies as well as specific case studies that illustrate the application of GCE initiatives Editors Eva Aboagye and S Nombuso Dlamini aim to motivate learners and educators in post secondary institutions not only to understand the issues of social and economic inequality and political and civil unrest facing us but also to take action that will lead to equitable change in both local and global spaces Education for Sustainable Development Chris Shiel,2007 Power in the Academy Jerome Satterthwaite,Heather Piper,Patricia J. Sikes,2009 Contributors from the Caribbean the USA China and the UK discuss the impact of power on research
