

ANNIVERSARY: September 11 and 2001

Memorial Services for September 11

Memorial services will be held across the country on Sept. 11, 2001, and beyond to remember those who lost their lives in the attacks. Many local cities will hold memorial services, and the 9/11 Memorial in New York City will host a service at 8:46 a.m. (ET), exactly one year after the attacks. Local services include a 9/11 Memorial Service at the National Mall in Washington, D.C., a vigil at the World Trade Center site, and a memorial service at the 9/11 Memorial in Shanksville, Pennsylvania. The 9/11 memorial service will begin at 8:46 a.m. (ET) and will last until 9:02 a.m. (ET), the time when the second plane hit the World Trade Center.

Other observances planned across the country on Sept. 11, 2001
