Apocalypse Not Apocalypse Not:

Nuclear Futurism Liam Sprod, 2012-09-28 Starting from the end of history the end of art and the failure of the future set out by such ends Nuclear Futurism reinvigorates art literature and philosophy through the unlikely alliance of hauntology and the Italian futurists Tracing the paradoxes of the possibilities of total nuclear destruction reveals the terminal condition of culture in the time of ends where the logic of the apocalyptic without apocalypse holds sway These paradoxes also open the path for a new vision of the future in the form of experimental art and literature By re examining the thought of both Derrida and Heidegger with regards to the history of art the art of history and their responses to the most dangerous technology of nuclear weapons the future is exposed as a progressive event rather than the atrophied and apocalyptic to come of the present world It is happening now opening up through the force of art and literature and charting a new path for a futural philosophy

The Political Sublime Michael J. Shapiro, 2018-03-15 In The Political Sublime Michael J Shapiro formulates an original politics of aesthetics through an analysis of the experience of the sublime Turning away from Kant's analysis of the sublime experience as a validation of the existence of a universal common sense Shapiro draws on Deleuze Lyotard and Rancière to show how incomprehensible events and dilemmas provide openings for new political formations He approaches the sublime through a range of artistic and cultural texts that address social crises and natural disasters from the writing of James Baldwin and Ta

Nehisi Coates to the films of Ingmar Bergman and Spike Lee these works suggest ways to channel the disruptive effects of the sublime into resistance to authority and innovative political initiative Whether stemming from the threat of nuclear annihilation or the aftermath of an earthquake the violence of racism and terrorism or the devastation of industrialism sublime experience Shapiro contends allows for a rethinking of events in ways that reveal redistribute and create conditions of possibility for alternative communities of sense
