Identities Across Boundaries Claudia Capancioni,Mariaconcetta Costantini,Mara Mattoscio,2023-11-22 This collection of essays aims to widen the current critique on borders by examining their entanglements with constructions of identity and disciplinary categories In particular it calls into question established models of gender notions of narrative genres and typological genera of borders in today s literary artistic philosophical and socio political discourse The chapters interrogate boundaries and boundary crossing not only in terms of geographical frontiers and the physical acts of trespassing but also as discursive constructs that police crossing subjects as gendered subjects on the one hand and identify artistic genres and academic disciplines as fixed sealed in ways of understanding the world on the other Taking inspiration from the multiple meanings of the Italian word genere which stands for gender genre and typology genus simultaneously the volume reflects on the gendered narrative and typological nature of borders and border imagery and on the significance and potentialities of crossover phenomena taking place in borderlands in the fields of arts literature anthropology sociology and philosophy

Winter Ali Smith,2017 Winter Bleak Frosty wind earth as iron water as stone so the old song goes The shortest days the longest nights The trees are bare and shivering The summer s leaves Dead litter The world shrinks the sap sinks But winter makes things visible And if there s ice there ll be fire    Girl Meets Boy Ali Smith,2008-11-20 Girl meets boy It s a story as old as time But what happens when an old story meets a brand new set of circumstances Ali Smith s remix of Ovid s most joyful metamorphosis is a story about the kind of fluidity that can t be bottled and sold It is about girls and boys girls and girls love and transformation a story of puns and doubles reversals and revelations Funny and fresh poetic and political here is a tale of change for the modern world    Diffractive Reading Kai Merten,2021-05-27 Putting the New Materialist figure of diffraction to use in a set of readings in which cultural texts are materially read against their contents and their themes against their readers or against other texts this volume proposes a critical intervention into the practice of reading itself In this book reading and reading methodology are probed for their materiality and re considered as being inevitably suspended between or diffracted with both matter and discourse The history of literary and cultural reading including poststructuralism and critical theory is revisited in a new light and opened up for a future in which the world and reading are no longer regarded as conveniently separate spheres but recognized as deeply entangled and intertwined Diffractive Reading ultimately represents a new reading of reading itself firstly by critiquing the distanced perspective of critical paradigms such as translation and intertextuality in which texts encountered processed or otherwise subdued secondly showing how all literary and cultural readings represent different agential cuts in the world text reader constellation which is always both discursive and material and thirdly the volume materializes dynamizes and politicizes the activity of reading by drawing attention to reading s intervention in and co creation of the world in which we live Infrastructures of Crisis in Global

Twenty-First-Century Literature Lucy Neave,2025-10-31 Discourse about crisis is pervasive in the mass media and scholarship and in discussions about the discipline of literary studies Contemporary narratives about crisis concern systems and infrastructures on which societies rely This book critically engages with crises as events of excess which surpass containment efforts by governments and institutions as occurrences that generate conflicting discourses meanings and political responses and as entangled with visible and underlying structures Infrastructures of Crisis concentrates on the evocation of infrastructure in literary and filmic texts about real world events such as nuclear accidents the refugee crisis pandemics and climate change and works across scholarly conversations to examine how a range of cataclysms is figured as well as how cultural products dramatise infrastructures entanglements with neoliberalism and colonialism The Story of

There But For The Ali Smith,2012-07-24 From the acclaimed award winning author when a dinner party guest named Miles locks himself in an upstairs room and refuses to come out he sets off a media frenzy He also sets in motion a mesmerizing puzzle of a novel one that harnesses acrobatic verbal playfulness to a truly affecting story Miles communicates only by cryptic notes slipped under the door We see him through the eyes of four people who barely know him ranging from a precocious child to a confused elderly woman But while the characters wit and wordplay soar their story remains profoundly grounded As it probes our paradoxical need for both separation and true connection There but for the balances cleverness with compassion the surreal with the deeply movingly real in a way that only Ali Smith can
