THE WORKING CLASS GOES TO WAR*Who fought the war?

Most soldiers who fought in Vietnam were called into combat under the country's Selective Service System, or draft. Because the war was growing unpopular, thousands of men tried to avoid the draft. Some men sought out doctors who would give them medical exemptions. Others moved to a different community where there was a more lenient draft board. Some joined the National Guard or Coast Guard to avoid combat.

One of the most common ways to avoid the draft was to attend college. Most men enrolled in a university could put off their military service.

Many university students during the 1960s were white and financially well-off. As a result, a large number who fought in Vietnam were lower-class whites or minorities. Nearly 80 percent of American soldiers came from lower economic levels. Thus, Vietnam was known as a working-class war.

Early on, a high number of African Americans served and died in Vietnam. During the first several years of the war, 20 percent of American soldiers killed were black. Blacks, however, made up only about 10 percent of the U.S. population. This situation prompted protests from many civil rights leaders, including Martin Luther King Jr. Many African American soldiers also endured racism within their units.

The U.S. military in the 1960s did not allow women to serve in combat.

A Nation So Conceived Michael P. Zuckert, 2026-06-16 The culmination of years of work on Abraham Lincoln's political thought Michael P. Zuckert's A Nation So Conceived argues for a coherent center to Lincoln's political ideology a core idea that unifies his thought and thus illuminates his deeds as a political actor That core idea is captured in the term democratic sovereignty Zuckert provides invaluable guidance to understanding both Lincoln and the politics of the United States between 1845 and Lincoln's death in 1865 by focusing on roughly a dozen speeches that Lincoln made during his career This reader friendly chronological organization is motivated by Zuckert's emphasis on Lincoln as a practical politician who was always fully aware of the political context of the moment within which he was speaking According to Lincoln's speech at Gettysburg America was new precisely because it was born in dedication to the first premise of the theory of democratic sovereignty that all men are created equal Lincoln's thought consisted in an ever deepening meditation on the grounds and implications of that proposition both in its constructive and in its destructive potential The goodness of the American regime is derived from that ground and the chief dangers to the regime emanate from the same soil Covering all significant speeches and writings of Lincoln both in his pre presidential and presidential days A Nation So Conceived is devoted to exploring the paradoxical duality of created equal In a nearly comprehensive study of Lincoln s thought Zuckert uses lessons he learned from decades of teaching to reveal how Lincoln understood both its truth and its pathological consequences while offering an assessment of his aims and achievements as a statesman Resources in Education ,1972 Teacher's Manual and Resource Guide Edward L.
