Boundaries Fiction Princeton Legacy Library:

Boundaries of Fiction George Levine, 2015-12-08 How does Carlyle Macaulay Newman sustain the values of old traditions and at the same time meet the challenge of contemporary Victorian experience is the subject of Professor Levine's book Like the novelists of the period upon whom they had great influence these three writers were seeking stability and permanence in an age of tremendous change They were trying to sustain the values and order of old traditions and at the same time meet the challenge of contemporary Victorian experience How each one met this challenge is essentially the subject of Professor Levine's book The author begins with a close analysis of the style and structure of the writers' key works essentially dissimilar in nature then moves on to an exploration of what they had in common Originally published in 1968 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Boundaries of Fiction George Levine, 2015 Writing the Victorian Constitution Ian Ward, 2018-08-21 This book charts the writing of the English constitution through the work of four of the most influential jurists in the history of English constitutional thought Edmund Burke Thomas Babington Macaulay Walter Bagehot and Albert Venn Dicey Stretching from the French Revolution to the death of Queen Victoria their writing is both representative of and formative to the Victorian constitution Ian Ward traces how constitutional writing changed over the course of the long nineteenth century from the poetics of Burke and the romance of Macaulay to the pragmatism of Bagehot and the jurisprudence of Dicey A century on our perception of the English constitution is still shaped by this contested history

Weber, 2016-02-11 Focusing on representations of women's literary celebrity in nineteenth century biographies autobiographical accounts periodicals and fiction Brenda R. Weber examines the transatlantic cultural politics of visibility in relation to gender sex and the body Looking both at discursive patterns and specific Anglo American texts that foreground the figure of the successful woman writer Weber argues that authors such as Elizabeth Gaskell Fanny Fern Mary Cholmondeley Margaret Oliphant Elizabeth Robins Eliza Potter and Elizabeth Keckley helped create an intelligible category of the famous writer that used celebrity as a leveraging tool for altering perceptions about femininity and female identity Doing so Weber demonstrates involved an intricate gender sex negotiation that had ramifications for what it meant to be public professional intelligent and extraordinary Weber's persuasive account elucidates how Gaskell's biography of Charlotte Brontë served simultaneously to support claims for Brontë's genius and to diminish Brontë's body in compensation for the magnitude of those claims thus serving as a touchstone for later representations of women's literary genius and celebrity Fanny Fern for example adapts Gaskell's maneuvers on behalf of Charlotte Brontë to portray the weak woman's body becoming strong as it is made visible through and celebrated within the literary marketplace Throughout her study Weber analyzes the complex codes connected to transatlantic formations of gender sex the body and literary celebrity as women authors proactively resisted an intense backlash against their own success Postmodern Love in the Contemporary Jewish Imagination Efraim Sicher, 2022-03-17 Offering a radical critique of contemporary Israeli and diaspora fiction by major writers of the generation after Amos Oz and Philip Roth this book asks searching questions about identity formation in Jewish spaces in the twenty first century and posits global transnational identities instead of the bipolar Israel diaspora model The chapters put into conversation major authors such as Jonathan Safran Foer Nicole Krauss Michael Chabon and Nathan Englander with their Israeli counterparts Zeruya Shalev Eshkol Nevo and Etgar Keret and shows that they share common themes and concerns Read through a postmodern lens their preoccupation with failed marriage and failed ideals brings to the fore the crises of home nation historical destiny and collective memory in contemporary secular Jewish culture At times provocative at others iconoclastic this innovative study must be read by anyone concerned with Jewish culture and identity today whether scholars students or the general reader The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license False Starts David M.
