Death, Dying and Bereavement Cecilia Lai Wan Chan,Amy Yin Man Chow,2006-01-01 Fear marks the boundary between the known and the unknown Some Chinese people believe that talking about death will increase the likelihood of occurrence Also by talking about death evil spirits will be attracted to haunt people In facing death individual response is inevitably moulded by the values attitudes and beliefs of one s culture Despite the large Chinese emigrant population in major cities in the world available material in English on death dying and bereavement among Chinese people is scarce As Hong Kong is a place where East meets West most professionals working in the field of death dying and bereavement adapt knowledge from the West to their practice with the Chinese population The intention of this volume is to consolidate and disseminate valuable practical wisdom with professionals in the local and international communities who serve Chinese patients and their family members Both Editors are from the Department of Social Work and Social Administration University of Hong Kong Professor Cecilia Lai Wan Chan has done extensive research in psychosocial oncology behavioral health grief loss and bereavement Amy Yin Man Chow an Honorary Clinical Associate in the department is a registered social worker specialized in bereavement counselling

Studies in Hebrew Narrative Art Throughout the Ages Joseph

Heinemann, Samuel Wenses, 1978    On the Death of a Child Christine Hindmarch, 2016-07-06 The death of a child whether during or following birth through illness through accident or through suicide is one of the greatest challenges families carers friends and the health and social care professionals who support them can face This book provides professionals with practical advice resources for further support and reading and much needed reassurance that whatever contact they have with the bereaved and however inadequate they may feel to the task they can make a difference With revised material and an entirely new chapter reflecting recent developments in bereavement theory the third edition of this classic text offers unique insights for professionals with varying levels of experience From theory and narrative come practical ideas on what to say what to do how to behave how to stay humble in situations where the only real experts are the bereaved themselves and how professionals can look after themselves in what can be particularly traumatic and upsetting circumstances

All-story Magazine , 1929    On the Death of a Child Celia Hindmarch, 2009 With revised material and entirely new chapters the third edition of this classic text offers unique guidelines for professionals of varying levels of experience This book provides professionals with both practical advice and much needed reassurance that they can make a difference

Bargaining Report , 1998    The New Tradition Gershon Shaked, 2006 One response to the ensuing Jewish struggle for survival as a spiritual entity was the emergence of a modern Hebraic secular cultural tradition This volume presents seventeen seminal essays by Israel's esteemed literary critic Gershon Shaked

The Anatomy of Bereavement Beverley Raphael, 1984    Bereavement Colin Murray Parkes, 1975    Chikamoneka!: Gender and Empire in Religion and Public Life Cheelo Siwila, Sylvia Mukuka, 2022-03-21 This is a pioneering volume that emerges from the voices of women scholars who belong to the Circle of Concerned African Women Theologians in their response to the subjection of women and children in religion and public life The book uses the metaphor Chikamoneka literally meaning it shall be seen to demonstrate resistance to all forms of oppression by empire to humanity especially those inflicted on women and children Some of the themes that addressed in this book are drawn from women's lived experiences This demonstrates the power of narrative theory as a tool for academic discourse The book makes a vital contribution to academic religious and secular society in the field of Gender Religion Development and Sociology It is also the first publication by the Zambian Women of Circle     All Story, Combined with Munsey ,1929
