Uncertainty: A Catalyst for Creativity, Learning and Development Ronald A. Beghetto, Garrett J. Jaeger, 2022-07-18 This edited volume brings together a group of international researchers and theorists from various intellectual and analytic traditions to explore the role uncertainty plays in creativity learning and development Contributors to this volume draw on existing programs of research as well as introduce new and even speculative directions for research theory and practice Learning and life are filled with uncertainty Although the experience of uncertainty can cause emotional discomfort or cognitive rigidity uncertainty serves as a catalyst and condition for change In this way uncertainty represents a core facet in the interrelationship among creativity learning and development Considerations for both the benefits and potential costs of uncertainty will be addressed in this volume with an aim of understanding how uncertainty can be better understood in light of creativity learning and development Taken together this volume stands to contribute to our collective understanding of the role that uncertainty plays in learning and life and highlights how conceptualizing and studying uncertainty in new ways can promote positive and lasting change The Fast Track Program for Children at Risk Conduct Problems Prevention Research Group, Karen L. Bierman, John D. Coie, Kenneth A. Dodge, Mark T. Greenberg, John E. Lochman, Robert J. McMahon, Ellen E. Pinderhughes, 2019-10-30 The authors conducted a prevention program called Fast Track consisting of multicomponent home school prevention activities carried out with at risk children from first to 10th grades over a 10 year period to prevent serious antisocial behavior and youth violence and achieve positive social emotional and academic outcomes They describe the research that informed the design of the program as part of their Conduct Problems Prevention Research Group how the study was implemented and outcomes up to 20 years later They discuss the context for youth violence prevention in the US the developmental and intervention research that informed the design of the program the study design and the children and families who participated in it interventions and impacts in elementary middle and high school years early adult outcomes of the program implications for developmental theory and research on the prevention of violence and how communities can address the problem of future violence by focusing on high risk young children Provided by publisher Deep Learning Stellan Ohlsson, 2011-01-31 Although the ability to retain process and project prior experience onto future situations is indispensable the human mind also possesses the ability to override experience and adapt to changing circumstances Cognitive scientist Stellan Ohlsson analyzes three types of deep non monotonic cognitive change creative insight adaptation of cognitive skills by learning from errors and conversion from one belief to another incompatible belief For each topic Ohlsson summarizes past research re formulates the relevant research questions and proposes information processing mechanisms that answer those questions The three theories are based on the principles of redistribution of activation specialization of practical knowledge and re subsumption of declarative information Ohlsson develops the implications of those mechanisms by scaling their effects with respect to time complexity and social interaction The book ends with a unified theory of non monotonic cognitive change that captures the abstract properties that the three types of change share      The Routledge Handbook of Child and Family Social Work Research Elizabeth Fernandez, Penelope Welbourne, Bethany Lee, Joyce L. Siegler, 2006-05-11 Part of the authoritative four volume reference that spans the entire field of child development and has set the standard against which all other scholarly references are compared Updated and revised to reflect the new developments in the field the Handbook of Child Psychology Sixth Edition contains new chapters on such topics as spirituality social understanding and non verbal communication Volume 2 Cognition Perception and Language edited by Deanna Kuhn Columbia University and Robert S Siegler Carnegie Mellon University covers mechanisms of cognitive and perceptual development in language acquisition It includes new chapters devoted to neural bases of cognition motor development grammar and language rules information processing and problem solving skills      Transitions Through Adolescence Julia A. Graber, Jeanne Brooks-Gunn, Anne C. Petersen, 2018-10-24 The adolescent period has attracted much attention as an ideal period for investigating interactive models incorporating biological maturation with intra and interpersonal development The focus of this volume is on adolescent transitions in three domains the peer system the family system and school and work contexts Its goal is to highlight specific aspects of innovative research programs and initiatives and look forward to future directions in the field Because interest in adolescence has spanned the disciplines this volume reflects a multidisciplinary perspective presenting research and methods from life span development sociology anthropology and education to provide exemplars of the range of approaches used in understanding the processes and transitions of adolescent development These exemplars encompass the breadth not only of the investigation of adolescence from survey research on drug use to ethnographic studies of involvement in criminal activities but also of individual differences in the experience of adolescent transitions from the transition to college and work in White middle class youth to the work experiences of urban African American high school students The chapters collected here offer a rich sample of the diversity of research experience with an emphasis on in depth investigation of adolescent transitions The volume will serve as a resource to investigators across several disciplines as it identifies approaches and recent findings from alternate fields
