

Final Exam Study Guide

Two important things to remember for the final exam:

- 1) The final exam questions are application based. They want you to think about how these course concepts apply to real-world situations, like interacting with teachers, or giving a speech.
- 2) The questions often ask you to choose the best or most likely answer, so you have to think not just is this answer applicable, but is it the answer that best addresses what the question is asking?

Introduction to Communication: Important Concepts

- 2) The three characteristics of communication: inevitable, irreversible, unrepeatable
- 3) The three myths of communication
- 4) The characteristics of competent communicators

Perception: Important Concepts

- 1) The perception process: know the steps and be able to identify examples of each.
- 2) Define schema and give a definition.
- 3) Define and understand self-concept
- 4) Define and understand self-disclosure, and understand when it is appropriate and when it isn't
- 5) Define and understand self-serving bias
- 6) Define and be able to identify prototype, stereotype, script

Culture: Important Concepts

- 1) Ethnocentrism
- 2) The relationship between culture and communication
- 3) Strategies and approaches to communicate across difference

Verbal Communication: Important Concepts

- 1) Characteristics of communication (what distinguishes human communication from animal communication)
- 2) Abstracting process
