China's Policy towards the South China Sea Lingqun Li, 2018-02-19 This book provides an explanation of Chinese policy towards the South China Sea and argues that this has been sculpted by the changing dynamics of the law of the sea in conjunction with regional geopolitical flux The past few decades have witnessed a bifurcated trend in China's management of territorial disputes Over the years while China gradually calmed and settled most land border disputes with its neighbors disputes on the ocean frontier continued to simmer in a seething cauldron China's Policy towards the South China Sea attributes the distinctive path of China's approach to maritime disputes to a unique factor the law of the sea LOS as the rules of the road in the ocean By deconstructing the concept of sovereignty and treating the LOS as an evolving regime the book examines how the changing dynamics of the LOS regime have complicated and reshaped the nature and content of sovereign disputes in the ocean regime as well as the options of settlement Applying the findings to the South China Sea case the author traces the learning curve on which China has embarked to comprehend the complexity of the dispute accordingly and finds that it is the dynamic interaction of the law of the sea regime and the geopolitical conditions that has driven the evolution of China's South China Sea policy. This book will be of great interest to students of Chinese and Asian politics, international law, international relations and security studies.

The Domestic Sources of China's Foreign Policy Lai Hongyi, 2010-04-28 Offers a systemic analysis of the foreign policy of China. This title demonstrates how domestic factors have profoundly shaped China's foreign policy from the late Mao's era to the reform era, presenting its argument through an analysis of major cases of Chinese foreign policy.

ASEAN-China Economic Relations Swee-Hock Saw, 2007 Examines the rapidly expanding economic relations between ASEAN and China in recent years, covering trade, investments, economic challenges, competition and opportunities in the various sectors of the two economies.

China-ASEAN Relations John Wong, Keyuan Zou, Huaqun Zeng, 2006 Papers of a conference organized by the East Asian Institute and Xiamen University and held in Singapore in December 2004.

China's New Foreign Policy Tilman Pradt, 2016-11-17 This book analyses how China overcame its meagre reputation in the early 1990s to become an aggressively growing military power and rising threat to the international system. The author focuses on China's new multilateral foreign policy approach, ambitious military build-up programme and economic cooperation initiatives. This book presents a much needed comparative perspective of China in terms of foreign policy, seeking to develop analytical tools to assess China's motivations and moves. The author suggests that understanding China's new foreign policy, its tactics in multilateral organisations and approaches to conflict resolutions are elementary to grasp the new realities of international relations, particularly relevant to newly established institutions in the evolving Asian political system which require basic knowledge for analysing the politics in this continent. This book uses an innovative approach, a qualitative analysis of China's foreign policy, addressing criteria of reputation management to overcome the perceived China threat.

The Dragon Looks South Bronson Percival, 2007-06-30 China has made extraordinarily rapid gains in Southeast Asia since it turned its old confrontational policy on its head in 1997. The Dragon Looks South focuses closely on the past five years and is a comprehensive work that reviews all aspects of China's relations with all Southeast Asian states. Percival also distinguishes between China's goals in mainland and maritime Southeast Asia, deals with all of the major external players in Southeast Asia, not just China and the United States, and contends that various international relations schools of thought may or may not be relevant to Chinese Southeast Asian relationships.

Bibliography of ASEAN-China Relations, 2006 Contains a list of titles in English covering relations between ASEAN and China. Titles cover topics such as bilateral relations, economic relations, finance and investment, the Greater Mekong Subregion, maritime issues and territorial disputes, socio-cultural issues and trade relations.
