Syndrome in Adolescence Liane Holliday Willey, 2003-02-20 Reflecting the views of parents professionals and those with AS themselves this book tackles issues that are pertinent to all teenagers such as sexuality depression and friendship as well as topics like disclosure and therapeutic alternatives that are more specific to those with AS This book is an essential survival guide to adolescence Denied! Failing Cordelia: Parental Love and Parental-State Theft in Los Angeles Juvenile

Dependency Court Simon Cambridge, 2019-09-17 Climbing the Broken Judicial Ladder continues the author's journey of exploring the heartbreak and loss of first adopting Cordelia with severe reactive attachment disorder RAD in Washington state and then of nearly losing her to the draconian and confused child welfare legal complex in Los Angeles In this third volume of his Denied Failing Cordelia trilogy Cambridge climbs the broken California judicial ladder from the California Court of Appeals Second Appellate District based in Los Angeles to the California Supreme Court Cambridge concludes that in appeals relating to dependency cases the ladder is broken for parents seeking to advocate for themselves and for the true best interests of their children Policies relating to child welfare are flawed Cambridge argues because of the preemptive and prejudicial response to the issues raised during the detention of children As with his two earlier books Cambridge explores issues connected with how best to parent his adopted daughter and advocate for her needs in the context of a dependency case Cordelia's reactive attachment disorder would surface throughout the judicial struggle as would the author's own struggles with Asperger syndrome Each would feed negatively into the overall trauma and drama of the author's unrelenting quest to reunite his forever family Cambridge believes that dependency proceedings are ill equipped on many levels to elicit a proper understanding of RAD or of the therapeutic parenting needed to address it Cambridge believes that adoptive parents of children with special needs need to be understood by more sympathetic social workers and by therapists trained in attachment disorders Cambridge s persistent efforts to reunite his forever family would leave him increasingly isolated as he climbs the judicial ladder Based on his experiences Cambridge explores areas for reform in Los Angeles dependency proceedings and evokes Shakespeare s King Lear by arguing that social workers need to see better and that the Los Angeles Juvenile Dependency Court needs to encourage a broader understanding of the issues raised through more effective legal advocacy from assigned dependency lawyers Cambridge argues that parents should be allowed to address the court directly Cambridge also relates how he and his daughter have found many positive and healthy ways to heal in the years since their dependency case ended Much trauma could have been avoided if those around them had seen better and had recognized the value in their dramatic and loving adoption journey account of what my life has been like with my AS husband and how his Asperger s has affected our marriage We have had many crisis moments over the years but most of these have been through joint ignorance of my husband s condition With realisation came a long getting to know you process and learning more about the condition and David s idiosyncrasies Advice that worked for us is clearly signposted There are about 500 articles on a vast range of subjects plus lots of links to the latest research David also writes about the topics I have chosen from his autistic experience providing insight into how our relationship works or doesn t from his perspective I want to share with you the everyday nitty gritty tiny details that most people outside of your family would miss that really affect you as a couple I have gone into detail about these and explained why these behaviours happen Not every man with AS is the same but you will recognise some of these behaviours in your husband or partner I graduated with a Masters in Autism from Northumbria University and used my 18 years of experience research of living with David to write my dissertation about our marriage I couldn t help but be worried when he read through my dissertation at the end as I was concerned that I may have misunderstood some things or upset him with some of the detail I believe it was probably quite hard for him to read how much his behaviour over the years had affected me but all he said after he had read it through was that it was very insightful I knew then I had done a good job
