Zoning and Land Use Law in Georgia includes: A brief history of land development in Georgia; A discussion of the legal basis for zoning; Constitutional challenges to zoning decisions; Vested rights and nonconforming uses; Variances; The rezoning process in Georgia; Zoning litigation; The Religious Land Use and Institutionalized Persons Act (RLUIPA); Environmental laws and regulations in Georgia; The future of land use and zoning.

Regulating Paradise David L. Callies, 2010-07-06 Land use in Hawai'i remains the most regulated of all the fifty states. According to many sources the process of going from raw land to the completion of a project may well average ten years given that ninety five percent of raw land is initially classified by the State Land Use Commission as either conservation or agriculture. How did this happen and to what end. Will it continue. What laws and regulations control the use of land. Is the use of land in Hawai'i a right or a privilege. These questions and others are addressed in this long overdue second edition of Regulating Paradise a comprehensive and accessible text that will guide readers through the many layers of laws plans and regulations that often determine how land is used in Hawai'i. It provides the tools to analyze an enormously complex process one that frustrates public and private sectors alike and will serve as an essential reference for students planners regulators lawyers land use professionals environmental and cultural organizations and others involved with land use and planning.

Legal Foundations of Land Use Planning Jerome G. Rose, 2012-12-01 Urban planning is a community process the purpose of which is to develop and implement a plan for achieving community goals and objectives. In this process planners employ a variety of disciplines including law. However the law is only an instrument of urban planning and cannot solve all urban problems or meet all social needs. The ability of the legal system to implement the planning process is limited by philosophical historical and constitutional constraints. Jurisprudence is concerned with societal values and relationships that limit the effectiveness of the law as an instrument of urban planning. When law is definite and certain freedom is enhanced within the boundaries created
