A Group of Famous Women Stories of Their Lives Edith Horton, 2015-06-24 Excerpt from A Group of Famous Women Stories of Their Lives The best kind of American woman is proud She has confidence in herself She is not vain or conceited or self assertive but she has faith in her own powers Even if she could she would not spend her life in play or in idleness she would choose to work She believes that because she is doing her chosen work whatever it may be steadily hour by hour day by day she is achieving Because she has confidence in herself she can live and labor serenely proudly No matter how obscure her lot she feels herself to be in the same class as the most famous of her American sisters who have worked with steadiness and confidence at their task and who have achieved greatness So difficult has it been for teachers to find brief readable biographies of distinguished women to use in connection with their lessons in history and civics that they will welcome this interesting collection It should help to make the girls in our American schools proud of their womanhood and it should give them a strong desire to be worthy of belonging to the same class as this group of noble workers About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
