A Practical Guide to Software Localization Bert Esselink, 1998 Although software localization is constantly changing there are many issues procedures and tools that will probably be applied for some time This work provides an overview of the most common issues in today's software localization from a translator's engineer's and project manager's view

Language Centres David Ingram, 2001 Language centres serve an important role in the development and implementation of language policy and in supporting language teachers This book describes five language centres the Centre for Information on Language Teaching and Research London the European Centre for Modern Languages Graz the Regional Language Centre Singapore the National Foreign Language Center NFLC Washington DC and the Centre for Applied Linguistics and Languages CALL Brisbane These contrasting centres provide the basis for a discussion of the roles functions and management of language centres and the challenges facing such centres and universities in general arising from tensions between the pursuit of academic excellence and the demands of commercialisation and economic rationalism The author holds a chair in applied linguistics in Griffith University and has written extensively on language policy and its implementation and on language assessment He has established and directed three language centres since the mid 1980s including CALL since 1990 and is an Adjunct Fellow of NFLC

Specialised Translation M.

Rogers, 2015-05-26 This book shifts the common perception of specialised or LSP translation as necessarily banal and straightforward towards a more realistic understanding of it as a complex and multilayered phenomenon which belies its standard negative binary definition as non literary
