A Room Called Remember Uncollected Pieces:

A Room Called Remember Frederick Buechner, 2009-10-13 A Room Called Remember brings together some of Buechner's finest writings on faith, love, and the power of words in the form of essays, addresses, and sermons. Here Buechner explores autobiography as theology, offers exhilarating reflections on biblical passages, and leads us into the room called Remember that still room within us all where the past lives on as part of the present where, with patience, with clarity, with quietness of heart, we remember consciously to remember the lives we have lived.

The Empathic God Frank Woggon, 2024-05-07 What if Jesus did not come to die for our sins? What if instead Jesus's life and death was intended to provide a way out of our shame? While traditional Christian teachings about the atonement emphasize sin as guilt and transgression against God's will and commandments, Frank Woggon points out that clinical spiritual care reveals that the human condition is predominantly marked by shame rather than guilt. In The Empathic God, Woggon examines myopic readings of the Jesus event that in turn have embedded distortions into traditional paradigms of the atonement. In contrast, Woggon mines narratives of the human condition to engage in a critical examination of the Jesus story. As a clinician and ordained Baptist minister, Woggon presents the Jesus event as God's empathic initiative toward humanity and convincingly argues that salvation comes through empathy rather than forgiveness. Woggon's work constructs a clinical theology of atonement from the perspective of clinical spiritual care. The Empathic God calls for a practical response of caring participation in God's ongoing work of salvation through an empathic praxis of spiritual care. Most importantly, The Empathic God takes seriously that lived human experience is the starting point for theological exploration rather than doctrine. This book will help practitioners and students of spiritual care in the Christian tradition to reflect more critically on the intersection of spiritual care practice and theology. The book also will challenge pastors, ministers of pastoral care, chaplains, pastoral counselors, spiritually oriented therapists to interrogate and re-interpret traumatic shame-filled Christian teachings about the atonement so that they too can join in God's ongoing and liberating work of salvation.

The Book of Buechner W. Dale Brown, 2006-01-01 The most thorough and extensive investigation ever written on the much beloved writer, The Book of Buechner explores the ways in which Frederick Buechner's writing, particularly his fiction, presents the possibilities of grace in the midst of the ambiguities of human existence and introduces themes of Christian faith. Both long-time readers and neophytes seeking a guide through his writings will delight in the illuminating analysis Dale Brown has to offer. Intelligent and gratifying, The Book of Buechner is a much overdue literary journey through one of the most significant American writers of the last fifty years.

Recollections Apostolos Kizilos, 2014-11-15 This collection of early and later poems, some translated from Greek, comes in four parts that reflect his experience of insightful moments: Portals, family and community life, Lifelines, work of all kinds, Work, life and moments of joy, frustration, and longing for Greece, his country of origin, Roots.

Heaven Christopher W. Morgan, Robert A. Peterson, 2014-09-30 Our culture has a lot to say about heaven. But too much of it is based more on imaginative speculation or supernatural experiences than on the Bible itself In the latest addition to the Theology in Community series Christopher Morgan and Robert Peterson have assembled an interdisciplinary team of evangelical scholars to explore the doctrine of heaven from a variety of angles Among other contributors Ray Ortlund examines the concept of heaven in the Old Testament Gerald Bray explores the history of theological reflection about heaven and Ajith Fernando looks at persecuted saints special relationship to heaven in the New Testament This team of first rate scholars offers modern readers a comprehensive overview of this often misunderstood topic shedding biblical light on the eternal hope of all Christians Part of the Theology in Community series Ascension Lois Benjamin,2024-03-26 In this masterful work of family focused sociology Lois Benjamin considers the lives of Pennie and Roscoe James and their children revealing how a large close knit African American family with humble origins in a small town of North Carolina is shaped by the contours of its religious and ethical value system Despite the challenges of daily experiences the James elders transmitted values to their children that provided them with the resources to thrive and the resilience to meet adversity The James children recount their personal unique perspectives on how faith familial solidarity and savvy entrepreneurship led to their continued generational success Benjamin uses a blend of ethnographic and qualitative methods to place the James family s experiences in broader historical context In doing so she shows that the family s values of compassion empathy and communitarian and enterprising spirit offer hope in this polarized society The Encyclopedia of Christian Literature George Thomas Kurian,James D. Smith III,2010-04-16 The written word is one of the defining elements of Christian experience As vigorous in the 1st century as it is in the 21st Christian literature has had a significant function in history and teachers and students need to be reminded of this powerful literary legacy Covering 2 000 years The Encyclopedia of Christian Literature is the first encyclopedia devoted to Christian writers and books In addition to an overview of the Christian literature this two volume set also includes 40 essays on the principal genres of Christian literature and more than 400 bio bibliographical essays describing the principal writers and their works These essays examine the evolution of Christian thought as reflected in the literature of every age The companion volume also features bibliographies an index a timeline of Christian Literature and a list of the greatest Christian authors The encyclopedia will appeal not only to scholars and Christian evangelicals but students and teachers in seminaries and theological schools as well as to the growing body of Christian readers and bibliophiles NRSV, The Daily Bible Catholic Bible Press ,2013-08-13 A companion for every day of the year Many people have embraced the spiritual discipline of reading through the Bible in a year Now the NRSV Daily Bible makes the entire New Revised Standard Version available to you in a daily reading format helpfully divided into 365 manageable readings Along with the biblical text this resource offers you wisdom from the classic writings of Christians luminaries such as Mother Teresa Henri Nouwen Dietrich Bonhoeffer N T Wright Madeleine L Engle and Frederick Buechner Renowned for its beautiful balance of scholarship and readability the NRSV faithfully serves the church in personal spiritual formation in the liturgy and in the academy The foremost Bible
