Cooter, 2005 Teaching Children to Read has always been well known for its comprehensive look at literacy instruction. This streamlined edition of that text has been developed to provide readers a brief version that offers essential information about reading instruction based on research that aligns with No Child Left Behind directives. The focus of this book is how to teach phonemic awareness, phonics, comprehension, vocabulary, fluency, and ongoing classroom assessment. Special features include a theory chapter to ground literacy background knowledge, an infusion of the most current research available to inform practice, and all five No Child Left Behind initiatives regarding phonemic awareness, phonics, comprehension, vocabulary, and fluency. A newly organized assessment chapter presenting four purposes of assessment as identified by Reading First legislation, including outcome assessment, screening instruments, diagnostic assessment tools, and ongoing progress monitoring assessments Language Arts Essentials Gail E. Tompkins, 2006 This new text from the leading name in literacy and language arts has been crafted to provide concise critical information for teaching the language arts backed by the most current and applicable research available. The essentials format gives readers the information they need in a price and time conscious way. Whether they are learning language arts methods during a practicum course, a block course, or if they're revisiting the newest, most proven strategies as they further their professional development, Language Arts Essentials will provide them with the needed background information and strategies.
