Beginning with balloonist adventurers and pioneers of flight it explores the parallel development of military reconnaissance techniques and their usefulness to archaeologists concentrating especially on the era between the two world wars when aerial archaeology really came of age    History of the Scottish Nation James Aitken Wylie, 1890    Current History and Forum ..., 1926    The Effects of Air Pollution on Cultural Heritage John Watt, Johan Tidblad, Vladimir Kucera, Ron Hamilton, 2009-06-10 This book reviews the sources of the air pollutants responsible for building damage and the mechanisms involved. Studies investigating the relationships between pollution concentration dose and the resulting damage response are described and the latest research findings for dose response functions are presented. Trends in pollutant emissions ambient concentrations and building damage over time are described and future predictions are presented. Methodologies for assessing the extent of the potential problem in a region the stock at risk are presented. Procedures for estimating the economic implications are described and the consequences are discussed in detail because economic factors are important for reaching policy and management decisions at local national and international scales. Damage to cultural heritage buildings is an important additional effect which needs to be considered as the standards are revised and the factors which will need to be brought into the assessment are presented    Early Sources of Scottish History, A.D. 500 to 1286 Alan Orr Anderson, 1922
